

LANGLOIS

By Marion Brooks

Mrs Calvin Blair received word that her brother in Santa Rosa, Calif., had suffered a severe heart attack. She left on the Thursday afternoon bus to be with him. While in California she will also visit with friends in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Berger and Ralph Pomeroy recently visited in Eureka, Calif. The Bergers with Mrs. Berger's sister and Mr. Pomeroy with relatives of his.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Solomon, Bill Lewis and Laura Lee, niece and nephew of Eldon White, visited the White home Thursday and Friday. They returned to their home in Newport late Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Sabin and children spent the week end on their ranch on Floras creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kruezer took son Kenneth back to his base in Texas when his leave expired.

It is reported that Ralph Cope has leased his farm and dairy stock and will live in Bandon. This move was necessary because of ill health.

Glen Hiley and Louise Peterson of Bandon have taken over the Langlois cafe.

Frank Pook has been confined to his home for the past week due to illness. Many friends have called during that time, including Mr. and Mrs. Randle of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. Don Whereat and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mastropolitano, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Blair and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brooks.

Mumps are making the rounds of the pre-school age children in Langlois. But a few adults are reported to be suffering from it too.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mulkey and two children of Coquille visited at the home of their niece, Mrs. Evelyn Boice, one evening this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moore have returned from a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in the Tegard area.

Evelyn Boice consulted a bone specialist in Coos Bay Thursday.

An election was held on Jan. 5 at the Langlois high school for the purpose of issuing bonds to build an additional classroom and library onto the high school and the building of new bleachers showers and dressing room for the high school gymnasium. The issue passed by a large vote.

Bob Thetford and Fred Hargand visited Bert Burr, Coquille high school basketball coach, in Coquille Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wilcox returned to their home in Sixes Friday evening after completing a 7000-mile trip visiting friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Houston, Tex., where they visited his brother, and to Kansas where they visited old friends and relatives. They spent Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years with their children in Los Angeles. They also reported visiting Rose and Bert Wheeling, well known in this area, and friends will be glad to know they are both in the best of health. On this trip the Wilcoxs spent 185 hours riding the bus.

Last Saturday night Myra Marlowe entertained her classmates of Port Orford high at the home of Neonta Hall on Airport road.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck attended the board meeting of the Coos-Curry Pioneer Historical Society, held at the Coquille hotel Saturday noon. From there they went on to Coos Bay to visit Al's sister, who is confined to McAuley hospital. They found her improving.

Jimmy Everest has been discharged from the Army and is back in civilian life. At present he is living with his wife's people in Bandon but is looking for a house to rent and a job.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Easterling were blessed with a little daughter, Lois Marie. The baby was born Monday afternoon at Mast hospital and weighed seven pounds five ounces.

Elmer Rockstadt of upper Floras creek met with a serious accident last Saturday night. He drove his jeep over the bank on Floras creek road and lay out all night unable to make his way back to the road or attract attention with his flashlight. He was taken to Keised hospital in North Bend where it was found he'd broken his pelvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huetzen-rader of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Shoop last Saturday night.

Confession?—Ask The Man Who Goes There!

Catholics go to Confession to a priest for one reason only: to obtain divine forgiveness for their sins.

But why, you ask, go to a priest? Why not confess our sins directly to God?

Ask the man who goes to Confession and here's what he will tell you: Sin is an offense against God, it must be forgiven by God. It is God, not man, who determines how forgiveness must be obtained. Christ plainly pointed this out when He empowered His Apostles and their successors to forgive sins or to refuse forgiveness.

"Whose sins you shall forgive," Christ said, "they are forgiven them; whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John 20:21-23). Thus Christ authorized the Apostles, and their successors, to pardon or to deny pardon as they judged the sinner worthy or unworthy. To do this they had to know what they were forgiving...the secret dispositions of the sinner...his sorrow and willingness to repair the wrong done to his neighbor by his sins. Who could make this known but the sinner himself—and what is this but Confession?

But Confession—the Sacrament of Penance—is only one of the seven Sacraments Christ left in His Church. Yes, seven—no more and no less! Christ's religion is not merely a message to be accepted, but a life to be lived—from the cradle to the grave. Christ's seven Sacraments are the answer to man's seven basic needs.

Man is born, but he needs to be reborn a Christian in the Sacrament of Baptism.

He is nourished, but he needs Christian nourishment in Holy Communion, the Sacrament of the Eucharist. He grows, but he needs to grow and be strengthened in Christian life by the Sacrament of Confirmation. He is cured of disease, but he needs a remedy for sin, so destructive of Christian life, and this he finds in the Sacrament of Penance.

Man lives in society which needs officials to promote the common good—and for his life in the Church, he finds officials provided by the Sacrament of Orders. He perpetuates the human race in marriage, which Christ made the Sacrament of Matrimony. And at death, he needs consolation and strength for the last dread hour which he finds in the Last Anointing—the Sacrament of Extreme Unction.

Would you like to know more about each of the seven Sacraments? How they can help you to meet the seven basic needs of your life? Then write today for a free pamphlet which gives important information concerning them. Ask for Pamphlet No. 5-N.
