

Local News Happenings About Folks You Know

Mrs. Forrest McManus, who underwent surgery at Seaside hospital Jan. 23, is home now in Harbor and doing nicely.

The home of Kenneth Fromm and his mother, Mrs. Robert Fromm, who live on Brush creek, was caught by the storm in a similar manner as that of the LaBarge residence. A tree went through the house scattering furnishings everywhere. The bathtub was found 500 yards, across the highway, on Brush creek.

Mrs. Ivan Shepherd is confined to her home this week due to illness.

Attention is called to the fact that the pre-school age health clinic will be held at the school tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 30.

Bud Rausch was brought home by plane from Gold Beach hospital before the road was opened. He is getting along fine after surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Goldizen got off Saturday for California after waiting for road conditions to improve. They went to get acquainted with a new granddaughter, born Jan. 17, and to be with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan Port Hueneume, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kerns accompanied them as far as San Francisco.

Irving J. Wagner, appraisal engineer for the State Tax commission, has been in this area for a time appraising new property and improvements on old property.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley were among those that were stranded in Gold Beach when roads were impassable.

The supervisor of the new branch office of the Boy's and Girl's Aid Society of Oregon in Medford is Miss Ruth Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton of Harbor. The Boy's and Girl's Aid Society, an organization for the care and adoption of homeless children, and a southern branch office will be a more convenient location for adoptive applicants in this section of the state. This change enables Miss Newton to spend more time here on weekends with her parents.

Mrs. Albert Joy of Harbor is spending the week in San Francisco with her daughter, Miss Adena Joy. Mrs. Joy flew to the city with her son, Bernard, of Washington, D.C., who had been here for several days visiting his parents. He is with the Department of Agriculture in the research division, and occasionally gets away from his duties to spend some time here where he enjoys fishing. He attended a business conference in San Francisco. Meanwhile Papa Joy is keeping bachelor's hall at home.

Mrs. Dorothy Lockland, who has been in Walla Walla visiting her brother, Ted Millgard, and family, is now in Seattle where she will be for sometime visiting her husband, Harry Lockland, of that city.

In a recent issue of Holiday magazine in the "You'll Remember Oregon" ad is a beautiful half page picture of a familiar Brookings scene, taken from the shore line at Harris State Park. The colored photochrome shows the white sandy beach with the picturesque rocks and the homes of Archie Anderson and W. L. Crissy and Don's Cliff house in the distance. Comments on this ad have been received here from the East and from the Middle West.

Mr. and Mrs. Almo Newton of Harbor, who are vacationing in California, spent last week guests of the Howard Haggertys at Oakland. The Newtons called on Mr. and Mrs. Sandbo at the Masonic Home at Decoto. Both the Haggertys and Sandbos are former residents here.

Satellite Social club O.E.S. held a meeting at the home of the club's president, Adga Bickner, Jan. 22. Plans were made for the Annual Fashion Show and dance to be held March 21.

The four-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cate became very ill last week and was diagnosed to be spinal meningitis. It was taken to Eureka. Dr. Ronniger is happy to announce that the baby is out of danger now and will be brought home in a few days, if it keeps on improving.

Carl Harrison went to Port Orford on Saturday, expecting to attend the Brookings-Port Orford game that night. He was stranded by the storm and returned early Friday through Roseburg and Grants Pass after the roads were open.

Mrs. Ethel Redfield and children came over from Klamath Falls Jan. 16 to visit the parental

Harbor Couple Wed Friday Evening

At the home of Justice of the Peace and Mrs. Charles S. Schaal last Friday evening, Milton Foster and Mrs. Kathryn Reekman, both of Harbor, were united in marriage by Judge Schaal in a simple but impressive double ring ceremony.

Mrs. William Barton of Crescent City was matron of honor for her mother, and Leslie Ray was the best man for his father. The bride and matron of honor had been presented beautiful orchid corsages for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. Alan Woodruff from their greenhouses where they are grown. The others present for the ceremony were Mrs. Howard Ray, Mrs. Herbert Payne, Miss Geraldine Beem, Mrs. Schaal and William Barton. A small reception at the home of the bride followed.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Foster are well known over a wide area. Mr. Foster being a native of Smith River a member of the pioneer Foster and Ransom families, and has lived most of his life in this area. He is a veteran of three years' service during World War I, two years of it in France and Germany. Mrs. Foster came to Harbor in 1924 to teach, remaining here to make her home, and at the present time is the clerk at the Harbor post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster are both active members of the Grange, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and the V.F.W. post and auxiliary, as well as community service projects.

Due to travel conditions, a contemplated trip south was postponed until later in the year, and they are making their home at Harbor.

Pierce home. Her husband, Don, arrived Thursday of last week from Eugene. Mrs. Redfield returned to Eugene with him for the week. The two grandchildren remained here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCause of Pomeroy, Wash., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collis. They arrived last Saturday at the height of the storm, probably one of the last cars to go over the road from Redding to Eureka.

E. E. Murry returned Sunday by plane from Alameda where he had been staying with his daughter, Mrs. Stella M. Barnes, after he was released from the hospital. Mr. Murry, 84 years young, enjoys flying. He was met at Crescent City by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Murry.

Five Generation Group Gathered

A five-generation group recently assembled at Myrtle Point, Oregon, featured two well-known Harbor women, Mrs. Leannie Humphreys, 82, and her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Humphreys Olson, 65. Others in the group were Mrs. Olsen's daughter, Mrs. Genevieve E. Mantz, 46, of Myrtle Point and her daughter, Mrs. Goldie Mantz Belle, 26, with her three children, John Belle 4, Leannie Belle, 5, and George Belle, 3 months.

A photograph of this interesting group appeared in the recent Sunday Oregonian. Mrs. Humphreys is a former Portlander and spends much of her time with her daughter here at Harbor where she has made many friends.

The Arrells moved into their home Saturday. "Frenchy" and son were seen on the beach Tuesday morning.

Brookings Harbor Pilot 7
THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1953

Dr. Richard L. Smith, optometrist, located at Brookings clinic, spent several days at home with the flu last week.

Lee Shanahan has sold his home on Del Norte avenue and will move to Grants Pass this week. Mr. and Mrs. Phetteplace of the Par Store, new owners, will do some redecorating and move in as soon as the house is ready for them.

Town and Country Gas Company

Call Ph. 3521, Crescent City, or write P. O. Box 342, Crescent City. J. E. (Jim) DAYTON, distributor. Butane tanks for rent, sale or lease. Office located at Anderson Plumbing Co., Fresno Street, off Pacific Ave., Crescent City.

NEW HARBOR TRAILER COURT NOW OPEN

Space for modern trailers

Turn left 3/10 mile S. from Chetco Bridge

RUSSELL & WILLOUGHBY - HARBOR

Caterpillar No. 12 power road grader
Caterpillar D-7 or D-8
TO RENT BY HOUR OR BY DAY

PUTNAM LOGGING COMPANY

Phone 2589 or Write Box 417
BROOKINGS, OREGON

GEORGE'S ELECTRIC

Wiring Contractor—Appliance Repair

RESIDENTIAL — INDUSTRIAL

"Let George Do It"

Phone 2944

P.O. Box 337, Brookings, Ore.

WHITE APPLIANCE CO.

ANNOUNCES

SPECIALIZED REPAIR

SERVICE!

SERVICE!!

SERVICE!!!

for APPLIANCES

for RADIOS

GORDON OLSEN

BILL MARTZ

Matot Building

Phone 2891

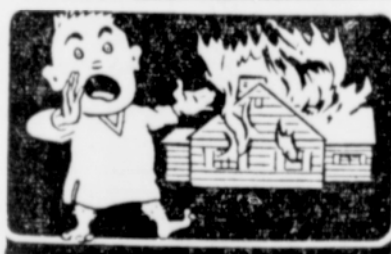

BAYVIEW GARAGE

At State Line

● Specializing in Radiator Repair

Call Brookings 2234 between 5:30 and 7:00 p.m.
for delivery service

GEORGE SHIPLEY, OWNER

AFTER THE FIRE IS TOO LATE

Let us see that you have
PROPER fire insurance protection NOW.

Come in... or just call.

ARTHUR KNOX
Insurance Agency

Gallagher Bldg.
PHONE 2211

Representing
NORTHWESTERN
MUTUAL FIRE ASSOCIATION