

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

Ralph Sweet and Ralph Hall returned from a trip to Tacoma this week. While on this trip they visited an uncle in Hoquiam and were in Seattle on business. They also called on Al and Elsie Anderson, who formerly were in charge of the lighthouse at Cape Blanco.

W. C. Boice entered McAuley hospital Friday for an operation on his hand. It was mashed last spring when a trailer he was welding slipped and caught it. This is a repair job to put it back into shape again.

Hans Adolphsen of Coos Bay was a dinner guest of his brother and sister, Fred and Katie Adolphsen, last Sunday. In the afternoon they drove down the coast to survey the storm damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cross and Maggie Simmons of Coquille were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nilsen last Sunday.

Barbara Fuller, the little girl who has been so ill with ruptured appendix, is recovering nicely and was expected to return home on Saturday, Feb. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Easterling and his sister, Nina, took a trip to Eureka Monday and Tuesday. It was their first trip through the redwoods and along the beautiful southern Oregon and northern California coast.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. John Denison of the birth of a baby daughter, Janice Marie, born Jan. 30 at Carlisle, Penn. This is their third child. They are expected at their home in Denmark early in March.

Hal Pierce of Coquille was in Langlois on business Wednesday.

The annual budget meeting of the Langlois school board was held Wednesday, Feb. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Slocum celebrated their wedding anniversary with a matinee and dinner at Tanglewood last Sunday afternoon and evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barklow, Mary and David, Bobby Jean Sypher and Margaret Fain.

Mrs. Charles Ranta has been very ill in Keiser hospital, North Bend, following an operation. Her sister from San Francisco has been with her.

Lola Sypher took daughter Bobby Jean to the doctor in Coquille one day this week following a painful accident at school. Everett Smith accompanied them.

Donna Churchill and children were home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cornell of Middleton, Idaho, Antle Henry of Bandon and Mrs. E. B. Henry of Myrtle Point were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry Tuesday night. Ethel Conick of Coos Bay was a weekend guest.

Langlois High School won the basketball game from Ophir Saturday night by a considerable score.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck attended the Historical Society meeting held in the Methodist church in Coquille Saturday. About one hundred members sat down to the potluck dinner at noon.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck had as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Mart Hoggatt of Port Orford and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crowley of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Slocum entertained a group of friends Saturday evening with a pinochle party.

Navy and a resident of Crawfordsville, Ore., has been visiting with his old schoolmate, Arvin Cannon, who is also home on leave from the air corps. They are both staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Cannon. Sunday Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Poitras arrived from Crawfordsville to take him home.

Open house was held at Langlois elementary school Feb. 12, to dedicate the new school building. A program was given of musical numbers by the Langlois school band and talks by school officials. After a tour of inspection of the building the P.-T.A. served coffee and cake in the school kitchen.

Friday night the Talent Hour, sponsored by the Floras Club played to a packed house. It was a good performance and many expressions of "best ever" were heard. The club is grateful to those who helped make it a success and also to those who supported them.

The club makes good use of the money earned and has already made contributions to many worthwhile causes. Ten dollars was given to Bandon hospital at Christmas; $5 to the Curry County Tuberculosis and Health Association; $5 to the American Legion for a swimming pool for veterans at the mental hospital at Roseburg, and $65 has been pledged to the new grade school for a flagpole. This is only a few of the many ways in which the club helps the community.

the evening, for games and moving pictures. A pie sale was held to help swell a fund for building a recreation hall on property adjoining the school on Easy street.

Movies by Howard Adams showed scenes about the Chetco Inn when it was owned by the Adventists and used as a meeting place.

Many of the young people saw themselves as children several years ago.

Mrs. Harry Newman and Mrs. Olly Tully were in charge of arrangements. Light refreshments were served to the large number attending and games played.
