She passed away Sunday, Feb. 15, following a long illness at Seaside hospital. Mrs. Plaisted was active in church and community affairs until ill health prevented her taking part. She is survived by her son, Reynold Plaisted, of Fort Dick; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Anthony of Smith River, Mrs. Lillian Wood of Bakersfield; a half sister, Mrs. Edith Johnson of Burney; one granddaughter, and several nieces and nephews. Interment was in Smith River cemetery. Pall-bearers were Hilmer Nilsen, Clarence Westbrook, Chester Crook, Everett Woodruff, Clarence Hight and John Cooper.

Morse Code Classes By Brainard

There are good jobs available to licensed radio operators in the armed forces, merchant marine, broadcast, etc. Knowledge of the international Morse code is required of applicants or for a "ham" amateur license.

I will conduct code classes in the dining room, "back door," of the V.F.W. hall Monday evening with beginners on Feb. 23, and March 2, only. No registering after March 2, as instruction is progressive. Either sex, above seventh grade, may come. Bring pencil and paper.

Because this highly specialized vocational course would be costly elsewhere, strict attention will be required. Technical instruction may follow toward amateur or commercial license examinations.

M. S. BRAINARD.

Square Dancing Lessons Taught

A series of three square dancing lessons will be offered the public at the Grange hall, Harbor, under the direction of the Oregon State College extension service.

The first lesson will be given this evening at 8 o'clock and the other two on the following Thursdays, Feb. 26 and March 5. Miss Jessalee Mallalien, Corvallis, will be the instructor.

Classes are free and all are welcome. It has been requested that people come in couples so that each may have a partner for dancing.

Winners will play winners and losers will play losers on Saturday night, Feb. 28, in the same gym.

Brookings won both games played Monday night with Port Orford in the Brookings gym. The second string won, 64 to 55. The first string won, 65 to 56.
