NEXT QUESTION!

The football coach was testing out his quarterbacks. He was putting their team in imaginary positions and finding out what plays they would use.

"All right Jim," he said. "You have the ball on your own five-yard line and it's first down. The score is seven to nothing against you and there are only 45 seconds to play. Now, what would you do?"

"I'd call time out and send in a sub to take my place," was the reply. "Then I'd run to the nearest telegraph station and wire my folks that we lost the game, seven to nothing."
