Miss Baker Bride Of Grosbeck

The marriage of Miss Edith Baker to Howard Grosbeck was solemnized Saturday, Feb. 21, at the Community church. Rev. Ed McClain officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Donald Baker. Miss Betty Jo Walter was the bride's attendant. Douglas Rausch was best man.

The bride and her attendant both wore strapless gowns, the bride's being of silver brocade with an overskirt of white net and had been designed by her brother and fashioned by her mother, Mrs. B. Franzwa. She wore a tiara of pearls and a fingertip veil and carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Her attendant's dress was of bittersweet net, sprinkled with rhinestones and had been designed by herself. She carried a cross of blue iris. Mothers of the bride and groom, Mrs. Madaras and Mrs. Franzwa wore camellia corsages.

Miss Susan Tierce sang "Always," and "I Love You Truly." Daffodils decorated the church and also the Rod and Gun club, where a reception following the ceremony was held. A three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. J. Owens, assisted by Mrs. Doyle Rausch and Miss Elaine LeClaire.

Miss Pat Hyland and Miss Joanne Clendenin were in charge of the guest book.

The bride wore a white shantung suit with purple accessories for going away.

After a California honeymoon the young couple will reside in Klamath Falls, where the groom is a student at O.T.I.

CILUFFO-CARTE WEDDING IN NEW YORK

The following marriage announcement was published in the Rochester, New York, Democrat-Chronicle on Feb. 15.

Miss Florence Ann Ciluffo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ciluffo of Lux street, and Sgt. James R. Carte, USAF, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Bolinger of Brookings, Ore., were married yesterday morning in St. Andrew's Roman Catholic church. The Rev. William Lammers of Holy Family church officiated.

The bride was gowned in white chantilly lace made with a basque, a full skirt and a train. Her veil was chapel length and she carried long-stemmed white roses.

Miss Dolores A. Ciluffo, maid of honor for her sister, wore fuchsia nylon tulle over taffeta, with a matching heart-shaped bouquet of white roses.

S. Sgt. John Mansfield, USAF, was best man and ushers were Francis A. Ciluffo of Mt. Morris and William E. Ciluffo of Rochester, both brothers of the

Presbyterian Church To Start
Services March 8

Rev. Hugh Bronson, Presbyterian minister, is arriving the latter part of the week from Spokane, Wash., his former home. He has been the pastor of the Shadle Presbyterian church in that city before accepting the call to Brookings where he expects to build the new Presbyterian church. Mrs. Bronson and their two small children will accompany him to Brookings.

It is expected that the first services of the Presbyterian church will be held in Brookings on Sunday, March 8. The hour and place will be announced in next week's Pilot.

Del Norte Concert
Series To Hear
Camilla Wicks

Camilla Wicks, violinist, will play for Del Norte Community concert series Thursday, March 4, Crescent City Elk auditorium at 8:15 in the evening.

Camilla Wicks is a violinist who looks more like a Hollywood starlet than a young star of the music world. Her blonde good looks belie the depth of her art and the seriousness of her purpose. Yet since her debut with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra at seventeen, she has played in this country from coast to coast and has made three European tours. In Norway—where her parents were born—she has appeared in three films and has been honored by a dinner with the Royal Family. In Finland, after playing the Sibelius concerto with the Radio Orchestra bride.

After a reception at the Ackerman Inn, the couple left for Oregon. They will live in Merced, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed at Castle Air Force base.

The couple arrived at the home of Jimmy's grandparents Saturday night after passing through the midwest storm which caused an accident to their car. Mrs. Carte will remain in Brookings until her husband arranges living quarters near his base. Jimmy will go south Monday, Mar. 2.

Scout Executive
