Parkers Enjoy Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Parker and son, Earl, returned last week after a three months' trip which covered 25 states and Mexico.

Going East they took the central route, arriving in Pittsburgh in time for Christmas. "This city is no longer termed the 'Smoky City'," said Mr. Parker. "All homes now use oil instead of coal for heating and factories have installed smoke consumers. The trip to Washington was son, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson returned home Friday after a week's trip into the northern part of the state and up into Washington.

The cowbells and horns were brought out Saturday night by a group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster, the group having decided that their marriage wasn't legal until they had been given a good old-fashioned charivari. After the neighborhood was well awakened, the group spent an enjoyable evening together.

timed so that they would be there during the inauguration. In Florida they enjoyed the winter sunshine and were interested to see that the Everglades were now under cultivation. The Parkers felt that one main reason that Florida has a great tourist trade is because they go out of their way to cater to the tourists.

The trip through Mexico was most pleasant. Re-entering the States at Tijuana they missed all the bad weather, encountering only two days of rain on the entire trip.

FASHION SHOW PROGRESSES

At a meeting held by committee chairmen final plans were completed for Satellites' sixth annual Fashion Show and Dance, March 21. Eddie Desjardin and his very popular dance band have been engaged for the dance that is to follow the Fashion Show in the V.F.W. hall.

It was also revealed that several of the merchants, other than the clothing shops participating, are planning clever skits or ad-
