Darnell and Pundt Wed In Gold Beach

Frances Fay Darnell and Richard Hans Pundt were married in Gold Beach March 12. They went north on the coastal route for a honeymoon trip.

Mrs. Pundt, formerly of Kansas City, Mo., owns and supervises a 320-acre grain and stock ranch in South Dakota.

Mr. Pundt, an operating engineer, is employed by Ross Putnam.

LOCAL NEWS

The name of the Camel Rock Court south of Harbor, lately purchased by Blanche Webster from the McAdams, has been changed to Webster Court by the new owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hendrick will leave Sunday morning for San Francisco where they will board a train for Detroit, Mich. There they will pick up a new De Soto and return by way of southern points. Archie says they are going to be footloose and fancy free, going where they wish on the spur of the moment and staying as long as they like.

Nine women of the F.O.E. Auxiliary were present at a "Come as you are" breakfast at the home of Juana Graber on Wednesday morning. All good sports, they really went as they were dressed, some just out of bed. Pictures taken will be a source of mirth for years to come.

Frank McKendry returned to his former home in Ely, Nev., this week. His son and family are living there. He has made many new friends while in Brookings.

Mrs. J. T. Smith and daughter, Alice, returned from Portland Wednesday where Mrs. Smith had a medical checkup.

Slides on the highway near Port Orford held up traffic Wednesday morning. The Greyhound bus was detained five hours, arriving here near 11 o'clock instead of 6:00.

The Neighborhill Club met at the home of Mrs. Don McCarton on Wednesday, March 11. Roll call was answered by each member giving a new or family favorite recipe using potatoes. Many clever ideas were given for dressing up the humble spud. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess and all enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon in spite of the rainy weather.

Series E Bonds Keep Earning Int.

The treasury department announces that maturity Series E bonds need not be cashed in. If held they automatically go right on earning 3% interest for as much as ten years longer. There is nothing to do—just keep them.

There are forty-three million Americans who now own defense bonds.

This Week At The Chetco Inn

Jack Davis of Ashland has taken residence at the Inn while working in this area.

Richard Hans Pundt, who has been a resident of the Inn for many months, has deserted us for a better cook. He married Frances Fay Darnell last week and an article telling more about them is in another part of the paper.

D. C. Avery of Newport was our guest while covering the territory for Commerce Coffee Co.

Medford Neon Co. has been installing some new signs in Brookings and Peter Roberts stayed at the Inn while doing the work.

Carroll Nettleton of the State Liquor control was a visitor this past week.

Mrs. E. Birkenfeld stayed at the Inn while preparing her house in Brookings.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Munn of Baker were our guests for a few days while looking up old friends in the area.

K. McHugh, representing Crane Co., of Medford spent a couple of days on business in this area.

W. N. Austin of Coos Bay is now in the area representing the R. C. Allen Business Machine Co.

Many of the truckers and loggers who reside at the Inn have been hoping that this rain will soon be over as it interferes with their work.

WEATHER WON'T STOP A 'JEEP'

When you start in a 'Jeep', you get there! Its 4-wheel-drive traction gets through deep mud, snow and sand that halt other vehicles. That's why a 'Jeep' is the most useful vehicle on farm or ranch—for hauling, transport, towing or use as a field tractor. Ask us for a demonstration of the all-purpose, all-year 'Jeep'—no obligation.

Gems Of Thought 4-H News

Doing is the great thing. For if, resolutely, people do what is right, in time they come to like doing it.—Ruskin.

And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Christ Jesus.

Doing unto others as we would that they do by us, is immortality's self. Intrepid, self-oblivious love fulfills the law and is self-sustaining and eternal. Mary Baker Eddy.

It is vain to expect any advantage from our profession of the truth if we be not sincerely just and honest in our actions.—Sharpe.

A good action is never lost; it is a treasure laid up and guarded for the doer's need.—Calderon.

A help act strengthens the inward holiness. It is a seed of life growing into more life.—Frederick W. Robertson.

The Tastier Cooks had three visitors at their meeting on Saturday morning. They learned to cook cereal, taught by Nancy Hull, Luana Simons and Rochelle La Brook. Another meeting was held on Monday to make up for one missed earlier and instruction in making tapioca pudding will be given by the leader and demonstration made by members.
