

HARBOR NEWS

Sgt. Curtis Chapman and Pfc. Beverly Wilson have arrived home after receiving their discharge from the army after several months' front line service in Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman drove south to meet their son when his ship arrived at its California port.

Mrs. Helen Arlandson and three children spent a few days in Coos Bay and Portland last week. They were accompanied on the trip to Portland from Coos Bay by Mrs. Betty Bock, the former Betty Benson of Harbor, who is now a resident of Coos Bay.

George Foster left on Tuesday for induction into the army, his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wallace, taking him to Coos Bay for his date with Uncle Sam.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ray are the proud parents of a seven-pound, four-ounce son, born at the Seaside hospital in Crescent City last Thursday. They have named the young man Thomas Milton.

Residents of the Upper Chetco country report that there was a foot of snow on Wilson Prairie last Friday, but that it is all gone now.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Verna Asche at Portland last Thursday, with the funeral to be held this Wednesday. Mrs. Asche was well known here as she and her family made their home in the Winchuck area for several years and she was active in Grange and VFW Auxiliary work.

Joe Hellrig and Wes Hinton spent several days in Portland last week where they purchased a new logging truck.

Leslie Ray has been transferred to Gold Beach to work with the crew there, by the Coos-Curry

Bob Hope Receives Snickers Award

Bob Hope, recently feted in New York City to mark the celebration of his fifteenth anniversary in radio and motion pictures, receives the SNICKERS AWARD from Milton Berle and George Jessel.

This award was presented on behalf of the Humor Societies of America in cooperation with Snickers Candy Bar, a product of Mars Inc.

A survey was made by these Humor Societies to pick the top comedians of the year. Awards also went to: Jack Benny, Jackie Gleason, Groucho Marx, Jerry Lewis, Sid Caesar, Jimmie Durante, Martha Raye, Gracie Allen and Lucille Ball. An honorary citation was given to George Jessel for giving the nation the most snickers of the year in his capacity as Toastmaster General of the United States.

The Humor Societies of America include the National Association of Gagwriters, Junior Comedians of America, The Museum of American Comedy and the National Laugh Week Foundation.

NINE LESSONS IN LIVING

Learn to laugh—a good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to attend your own business. Few men can handle their own well.

Learn to tell a story. A well-told story is like a sunbeam in a sick room.

Learn to say kind things—nobody ever resents them.

Learn to avoid nasty remarks—they give neither the hearer nor the speaker any lasting satisfaction.

Learn to stop grumbling—If you can't see any good in the world, keep the bad to yourself.

Learn to hide aches with a smile—nobody is interested anyway.

Learn to keep troubles to yourself—nobody wants to take them away from you.

Above all, learn to smile. It pays.

TRUST

I have never committed the least matter to God, that I have not had reason for infinite praise.—Anna Shipton.

How good and pleasant a thing it is to seek not so much thine own as another's good, to sow by the wayside for the way-weary, and trust Love's recompense of love.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Love all, trust a few, Do wrong to none.—Shakespeare.

To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved.—J. Macdonald.

The soul and spirit that animates and keeps up society is mutual trust.—South.

An undivided heart, which worships God alone, and trusts him as it should, is raised above all anxiety for earthly wants.—Geikie.
