

Along Azalea Row

By MARTHA GRAYSHIEL

Devotees of the art of flower arranging will welcome the opportunity to pursue their hobby at the next garden club meeting Thursday, April 9, at the Grange hall. At ten o'clock Mrs. Charles Grayshiel will instruct the beginners and those coming for the first time will need the following material: A low container, preferably a plain one, floral wax or modeling clay such as used by children, a needled holder of medium or large size and a scissors or clippers; also an assortment of foliage and flowers. Mrs. Almo Newton will take over the advanced instruction at 11 o'clock and will also evaluate the arrangements during the recess prior to the regular dessert luncheon.

A plant sale will also be held at the April meeting. Mrs. Virgil Goldsberry, plant sales chairman, will be in charge, assisted by Clara Kerns. It is very helpful to have the plants and cuttings labelled and wrapped, if possible.

The Azalea Singers will present two new numbers at the
