

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ackley left Sunday for Reno where Ackley transacted business. On returning they found the road around Lake Tahoe closed by snow and winds of 70 to 80 miles per hour. They were forced to go north to the Feather River country to get home. They returned Wednesday night.

The parishoners of St. Joseph's catholic church, Crescent City are holding a rummage sale Thursday through Saturday of this week.

Tommy Martin, teacher at the local school was called to Boise, Idaho on Wednesday by the critical illness of a sister.

Mrs. William A. Foltz sends a card with good wishes for all the old friends of the family here in Brookings. The home owned by them near the I.O.O.F. hall burned last fall. They and their sons and daughter will be well remembered by many for their fine community spirit and work for betterment in local projects.

Ore. Lumbermen Elected To West Coast Association

Twenty Oregon lumbermen were elected to the board of directors of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association at the close of the 42nd annual meeting of the lumber trade group in Portland Thursday.

N. B. Giustina, active young Eugene lumber leader, was elected vice president for Oregon. Two Portland men were re-elected to top executive positions, H. V. Simpson as executive vice president, and Harris E. Smith as secretary.

Named to the board of directors from Oregon were: J. W. Wirrick, Dee; Harold A. Miller, Forest Grove; M. L. Hallmark, Roseburg; E. W. Pease and A. A. Lausman, Medford; Judd Greenman, Veronia; Walter Leisy, Lebanon; Guy Haynes, Carlton; Nils Hult, Junction City; Al Pierce, Coos Bay; Eliot Jenkins and Ruben Ross, Eugene; James A. Pack, Grants Pass, and E. G. Whipple, Drain.

From Portland directors named

GRACE

Virtue, wisdom, goodness, and real worth, like the loadstone, never lose their power.—Richard E. Burton.

When a hungry heart petitions the divine FatherMother God for bread, it is not given a stone—but more grace, obedience, and love.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Grace groweth after governance.—Thomas Becon.

Grace is more beautiful than beauty.—R. W. Emerson.

were: William Swindells, H. A. Templeton, Clay Brown, Edmund Hayes, Hillman Lueddemann and Ward Mayer

Douglas fir millmen from western Oregon, Washington and California voted to spend $570,000 in national lumber promotion during the next twelve months. They decided to intensify their work in lumber merchandising. Much of the prosperity of these north-west states depends upon the prosperity of the lumber industry and its 175,000 employees, lumber spokesmen observed.

Check Up On Weed Control Chemical

Roland Laning and Norman Goetz, Corvallis, were in town Saturday checking the results of weed control chemical applied to lily fields. This eradication was spread over Turly Lily Garden fields last fall and was found to be successful. Spring weeding could in this way be cut down or entirely eliminated. This new chemical, which has passed the
