

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

The Rhododendron Garden Club has been very active this week as the other flower clubs in the vicinity have as a group attended the Rogue District Flower Club meeting, held in Arago on Tuesday. In the group were Mrs. Clarence Hansen, Mrs. A. W. Britton, Mrs. Dick Erwin, Mrs. George Guerin and Mrs. Ralph Mason.

On Friday the club attended a meeting held by the Sunset Garden club of Port Orford. The subject presented by speakers from O.S.C. was the propagation and care of 'mums. Mrs. Helen Slocum, Mrs. Lucille Barklow, Miss Katie Adolphsen, Mrs. Clara Erwin, Mrs. Estelle Hansen and Mrs. Lelah Mason represented the club at this meeting.

The Langlois Parent-Teachers organization will meet Tuesday, April 21, at 8 o'clock in the high school cafeteria. There will be a demonstration of square dancing given by the grade school students with dancing for all later.

The Curry County Fair board met at the court house in Gold Beach Monday evening for its regular monthly meeting. Representatives from the Christian Science church were present to discuss the possibility of their using a part of one of their buildings for meetings during times not in use by the fair. Mr. Olney, Mrs. Kessler, Mrs. Humphries and Mrs. Hooks were the delegates.

They made satisfactory arrangements and will hold meetings in one of the buildings.

Jim Turner from the Odd Fellows and Glen Sabin from Rotary offered the cooperation of their organizations toward building a better fair. This offer of help was deeply appreciated by the fair board and manager.

Ben Holtzendorf from the hardtop racing organization completed a deal with the board and as soon as a contract is drawn up will start putting the track in shape for racing. He hopes to have the races going by the first of May and will race every other Sunday. Alternate Sundays there will be races in Crescent City.

Manager Kenneth Thompson reported that they had located a local pile driver at the plywood wood plant at Hunter's Creek. The plant manager, Mr. Tegner, will let the fair board use it for costs, thus saving the county considerable money. Piling must be driven to stop the inroads of the ocean on the fair grounds.

The Langlois seventh and eighth grade girls held a tea party and fashion show April 2 at the grade school. Mrs. J. R. Brown and daughter, Mrs. Victor Overly, Mrs. Clyde Jensen, Mrs. R. D. Tucker and Mrs. Peterson were present. Mr. Hover and Mrs. Cora Gustin teach the two grades.

Mrs. Cora Gustin, teacher of the seventh grade, took her pupils to Gold Beach Friday to compete in the county-wide spelling contest. This consisted of oral and written tests. Judy Boice placed first, Kenny Longnecher, second, and Harold Neff, third, much to the credit of Langlois school.

Hendricks Return From 3-Week Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hendricks returned home on Saturday from a three weeks' trip spent in the midwest and southern states. They flew to San Francisco then went by train to Detroit, where they took delivery of a new De Soto; through Tennessee and Kentucky to New Orleans and Mobile, crossing the Mississippi into Texas.

In Albuquerque they just missed seeing an uncle of Malissa's, but called on Vernon Goldizen and his fiancée, Mary McKittrick, who were busy with decoration plans for the apartment they will occupy after their wedding May 30.

They returned to Brookings much rested and relaxed after this interval of new places and scenery. Malissa says for the first few days away she had that subconscious urge to hurry and get home, but finally settled down to really enjoying the change.

Archie came home with a nice tan and is enjoying the new De Soto acquired in Detroit.

Charlene Turner, local high school girls, accompanied Mrs. Howard Tucker of Bandon to Portland Thursday to attend the grand session of Job's Daughters. While there they attended a recital at Lewis and Clark college at which Speed Anderson played. Speed is a former member of Langlois high and well known for his ability as a piano player.

Mrs. Jo Storm, with Mrs. Lilah Hodge, Mrs. Betty Kreutzer and Mrs. Mary Hildebrand as co-hostesses, honored Mrs. Iris Loshbaugh with a stork shower Monday, April 6.

The Lacy and McCracken families spent the weekend with relatives near Medford.

Mr. Hensley passed away suddenly of a heart attack at his home on Flora's Lake Thursday morning. Services will be held the early part of the week. The community extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

Henry Boice, grandson of Mrs. Tilly and Mrs. Carrie Boice, left Friday for Fort Lewis where he will be inducted into the armed forces. He will receive his basic training at Camp Roberts, Calif.

Flora's Willow Club met at the home of Carrie Boice Thursday afternoon. Nine members, one visitor and two children were present. They voted to give a 4-H scholarship to 4-H summer school, a juvenile Grange scholarship to their summer camp, and five dollars to the exchange student fund. Plans for the fall bazaar were discussed. The next meeting will be with Dessie Lang in May.

Friday a small child of Mr. and Mrs. McCracken ate, by mistake, pills not intended for children and was taken to the hospital in Gold Beach a very sick child.

Dad Woodworth was brought home from Bandon hospital Wednesday. He is somewhat improved but must take things pretty easy for awhile.

The James Mastropolitos are driving a new car this week and George Churchill has a new pickup.

E. Petersen of Sixes started work in the Langlois cheese factory Monday morning. The cheese factory at Sixes has been dismantled. Mr. Twigg manages at the Sixes plant will be located in Arago and is moving within the month.

Sixes Grange met at the Sixes Grange hall Saturday evening.

Twelve new applications for membership were read. Three candidates received the third and fourth degree obligation, and two candidates received the first and second. It was decided to put the degree work on in full at the first meetings in May and June.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Nilsen entertained 17 relatives at Easter dinner.

Mrs. A. W. Britton talked with her daughter Bernice, Mrs. Merle Randleman, at Norfolk, Va., last Sunday night. It took seven hours to put the call through and was quite a thrill to Mrs. Britton for she has not seen her daughter for two years.

Mrs. Connie Gadsby of Naheotta, Wash., niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lex Cope, has been their guest from Monday through Wednesday. She left for her home in Washington Thursday morning.

I. W. Noble of Artesia, Calif., nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Clarke, has been their guest for the past two weeks. He starts work for the Coquille Auto Freight this week and his family will join him as soon as school is out.

Recently announced is the engagement of Eileen Cooley of Grass Valley, Ore., to Roger Moore of Langlois. Both young people are enrolled in the graduate school at the University of Oregon. Eileen, an art major, is doing her first year of advanced study Roger is to receive his Master of Science degree in June. The wedding is planned to take place in Eugene on Commencement day.

Monday morning, weather permitting, Dick Barklow will start work on the building that will eventually be the new home of "Dick's Feed and Seed."
