

Mrs. Lydia Browman spent some time inland the first of the week, just resting.

Mrs. T. H. Elliott, Portland, and Mrs. C. M. Morgan, Rogue River, are visiting their mother, Mrs. C. E. Brown, and sister.

L. W. Magee, Dayton, was in town Tuesday to call on friends and attend the Pacific Bulb Growers Association meeting held Mrs. Vern Smith.

at the Grange hall Tuesday. Mrs. Harry Lyness, Seattle, is visiting her husband this week. Harry is all smiles and more like "his old self."

Mrs. Frank Hassett underwent the removal of a painful growth on her foot this past week. Dr. Ronniger doing the surgery at his office. She will be about in the V.F.W. wheel chair for some days until it heals.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rausch are on a lengthy business trip to their old home in the Dakotas, driving east.

Judging by the crowds Frenchie Arrell had at his 1 cent sale, seems like some of the other merchants might try it, especially in the meat and coffee departments.

What became of the bill that was to be brought up in the Oregon legislature to appropriate money to rebuild the Gilbert creek bridge?

There was a lot of neck craning Saturday at the parade of big planes over town. Somebody said they thought Dink Payne or Ben Kerns might have borrowed them for the day.

Louie Peterson, who lives on the corner of 101 and Hoffeldt avenue, says he come down here from Portland all washed up and fit to sit out the rest of his life, but that he's got so busy with tinkering jobs for other folks he's forgotten all about the washed up part.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Turley returned Wednesday after a two and a half months' trip east in the interests of their lily bulb business. They visited their daughter and family in Chicago and arrived in El Cerrido, Calif., shortly after their new grandson was brought home from the hospital. Rev. and Mrs. Owen Turley are the proud parents of Ronald Calvin.

The American Legion Auxiliary is giving a luncheon at Don's Cliff House today, Thursday, April 23, honoring the department president, Gayle Kreasen, who is making her official visit to this unit.

The bridal cake offered by Glen's Bakery as a prize to the first girl married after the Fashion Show, was claimed by Kay DeMartin, who was married to Robert Johnson Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump of Harbor are in Portland this week. Mr. Crump will receive treatment at one of the city hospitals. Mrs. Crump teaches in the elementary school.

Mrs. Marvel Patterson-Fox, who lives north of town near the Jennie Smith place, has received a letter that she is one of the lucky winners on Hemmingways Folger's coffee contest. A list of winners is named each week and the local woman's name was on the list about two weeks ago when Hemmingway made the announcement on his radio program. Congratulations to Mrs. Patterson-Fox.

Local News Happenings About Folks You Know

Mrs. L. G. Stafford reports the sale of the Stafford Lily Gardens to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wissinger, who were growers for the company formerly. Mrs. Stafford will continue in an advisory capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Duff of Medford visited Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson. Mrs. Duff is the sister of Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Henderson. Mr. Duff is water superintendent and city superintendent of Medford.

Harbor was well represented in Canon City, Colo., at the home of Robert and June Lively Friday, April 10, by the surprise visit of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hanscam and three boys who are on their way East. Later the same day Mr. and Mrs. Newman Strommenn arrived. The Strommens stayed with the Livelys two nights and left Sunday morning. The Livelys, being former residents of Harbor, enjoy a visit with home folks and extend a cordial invitation for any and all journeying through Canon City.

The recent snow and cold weather on the coast may bring about conditions in the amount of surplus lily bulbs saleable on the coast this year, so that a market may be found for all bulbs marketable from this area, is the opinion of one of the large lily growers at the present time. Weeding has been retarded by rain, but a few days of sunshine will permit crews getting into the fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Surprise of Arcata, Calif., were in the area to attend the lily meeting on Monday. Mrs. Surprise visited Mrs. J. J. Gallagher during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wallace of Harbor attended the memorial services held in Salem Tuesday for Mr. Wallace's nephew, Lt. Wesley, who was killed in French Morocco. He was acting as navigator on a plane that crashed in Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Walker of the Walker Floral Co., Albany, Ore., arrived on Sunday to attend the Pacific Bulb Growers Assn. meeting held in the Grange hall on Monday. Mr. Walker is organization secretary. He and his wife manage greenhouses and an extensive interest in Albany. They remained in this area through Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hendry left for Twenty-nine Palms, Calif., on Good Friday, April 3. They will enjoy living in a trailer house and hope the altitude and dry climate will be beneficial to Mr. Hendry's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox entertained Fred's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Steadman of Victoria, B. C., from Wednesday of last week until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ostenberg drove to Chico, Calif., on Friday of last week, where they visited Karl's parents. They drove on to San Francisco on business and returned mid-week.

- ◆ Ten Top Tunes, Yelton's.
- ◆ Music Accessories, Yelton's.
- ◆ Record Cases, Yelton's.
- ◆ Record Changers, Yelton's.
- ◆ Sheet Music, Yelton's.
- ◆ Records, Yelton's.
- ◆ Bone China, Yelton's.
- ◆ Copper Plaques, Yelton's.

Milo Mann, who was separated from the infantry in December and has lived in Harbor since, is now parts man at Davis Truck & Tractor.

Word has been received here recently by friends of the Hardenbrooks, that Homer, who was hospitalized a couple of months ago, was back home and though slowly, is steadily improving. The cards and letters that were sent him during that time were appreciated and a great encouragement to him. Old time friends who wish to write a few lines of encouragement can do so by addressing to Homer Hardenbrook, Route 3, Box x23, Lebanon, Ore.

Mrs. Opal La Brook left Tuesday for Marton, Wash., to be with her mother who is seriously ill.

Fred Fox and Chuck Sabin went to San Francisco on Monday to pick up a truck for Fox Bros.

Ralph Stone, previously employed by John Darger at Azalea Garage, will go into business for himself as Ses-Co. Stones Equipment Service at the same place. He will be assisted by his two sons, 18 and 20.

Those Scouts going to the Jamboree in Los Angeles in July and their parents will meet at the V.F.W. hall on Tuesday night, April 28. Representatives from Eugene will give the boys information as to what equipment and clothing to take with them. There will be a group of 20 boys attending the national gathering from Brookings-Harbor. About twenty Scouts of troop 222 will camp up the Chetco from Saturday morning to Sunday night. They will have instruction in camping comfortably and camp cooking.

Jimmy Fitzhugh and his wife were guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll, at the Driscoll Motel from April 10 to April 15.

Mrs. Clara Kerns was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sandbo at De Cota Masonic home near Hayward, Calif., while south last week.

Elmer Bankus was called to Portland Friday of last week by the death of his brother and wife, Walter and Phoebe Bankus, who were found in their gas-filled home at 5308 SE Sherman. Fumes apparently came from a stove in the kitchen. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, April 21, at 11:00 a.m. Mr. Bankus is expected home this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wallace are pleased with the results of their Sea-Gro fertilizer product. When it was applied to the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keener as an experiment, just half of the area was spread with Sea-Gro. Mr. Wallace says it shows a distinct dividing line between that part not fertilized and the side that his product was used on.

Over fifty "Rockhounds" gathered at the V.F.W. hall last Thursday evening in their regular monthly meeting, the third Thursday of each month. The principal business of the evening was going over their constitution and by-laws. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Young told about their field trip to eastern points and showed many specimens they brought home with them.

Norman Stacey was able to leave the hospital and return to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gott this week. Mrs. Stacey, Jean Gott, has been with her parents since he was injured by a shotgun accident.

This Week At The Chetco Inn

Dale W. Miller of Portland and representing New York Merchandise Co. spent a day in this area last week.

Archie Goldsmith & Bros. was represented here last week by Ivan Hale of Grants Pass.

N. E. May and W. H. Field's of Medford were here last week looking after their timber interests.

A. R. Evans and J. I. Clinton of the firm of Grant and Evans of Roseburg are in the area doing engineering work. They will be here for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Nelson and their daughter were our guests for a few days while Mr. Nelson was attending to his interests in Brookings.

Bruce Snow of Sedro Woolley, Wash., was our guest for a day while passing through.

Kerr Glass Mfg. Corp. was represented in this area by Frank A. Alldis of Hayward, Calif. We had quite a chat with Mr. Alldis as the writer of this column lived in Hayward many years ago.

Miss Dorothea, Tibesar of Rochester, Minn., was our guest this week and said that she was in love with the Oregon coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Greenwood of San Mateo, Calif., stopped for a few days with us this week. Mrs. Greenwood told us of her schooldays with Elmer Bankus.

John Nuckton of Palo Alto, Calif., was a Brookings visitor this week. Mr. Nuckton is the head of four companies and these companies grow and ship flowers and bulbs.

It seems that Chetco Inn has suddenly become the headquarters for the lumber and logging interests in this area. Space does not permit the names of all who are making the Inn their home at this time, but we can say that about thirty of them are now at the Chetco Inn.

Plans For New Business Here

Property across the street from the Azalea Lanes is being cleared this week for the erection of a building for a new business in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brimm are planning a twenty-unit self-service laundry. The building will be started soon and operation begun upon completion.

NOTICE

Lyle Redfield, Sr., will show two hours of travel film, including trip to Mexico. Public invited. No admission charge, but a collection will be taken for Jamboree Scouts. This will be held Thursday, April 30, at 8:00 p.m., I.O.O.F. hall. Sponsored by Chetco I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 249. Boy Scout Troop No. 32.

ROY H. BROWN MORTUARY

"Brookings' Own"

Phone 2244—Day or Night

Hillside Street

Brookings, Oregon

"Courteous, Dependable Service"

Brookings Harbor Pilot 9
THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1953

On the Main Drag

That pleasant atmosphere at Mincer's Jewelry and Eva Lee's shop.

Three petaled trillium heralding the season.

August Johnson cutting capers. Those yo-yo bugs.

Admiration for that hooked rug done by Martha Grayshel and Bertha Whirry and the crocheted one done by Mrs. Jochens.

Teacher Harrison driving a new black Olds convertible.

Well Child Clinic Friday At School

Another opportunity for parents to have their children's physical condition checked will be given by the Well Child Clinic on Friday, April 24, at the elementary school.

Beginning at 9:30 a.m., Doctor Ronniger will examine those present until 12:00 noon. He will be assisted by Mrs. Cecil Watt, nurse.

FOR SALE

Tomato plants that are adapted to the Coast of Oregon and a few others.

NO SATURDAY CALLS

GEO. L. TITUS

Harbor Oregon

OREGON'S LARGEST USED FARM MACHINERY

AUCTION SALE

65 Tractors plus plows, discs balers, mowers, harrows, combines, etc.

SAT., MAY 2
10 O'clock

Lane County Fairgrounds
EUGENE, OREGON

Sponsored by

Willamette Valley Ford
Tractor Dealers Assn.

WANTED Well Digging or Drilling

BILL JOHNSON

Brookings Gen. Del. or
Hamilton House, Crescent City

PHONE 2964