

Local News Happenings About Folks You Know

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tygart attended a convention and banquet of O.K. rubber welders at Brownsboro, near Eagle Point, late last week and went on a rock hunt on their own on Sunday. They returned with some nice specimens.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young went to Seaside on Sunday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Young who were former owners of Young's Gift Shop. They will combine business with rock hunting in locations between here and there.

Fred Zentz, butcher at the Chetco store, and his family have taken a short vacation and are visiting a daughter in Dallas, Oregon.

Mrs. Raymond Turek of Klafalls, was in Brookings on business last Friday. She regretted not being able to see all the old friends she knew when she lived in Brookings from 1943 to 1948. Her friends will remember her as Mrs. McKernan.

The newly formed Brookings Harbor Lions Auxiliary met at the Chetco Inn Friday, May 1, to make further plans for the chaster party, which is to be held Saturday, May 16, beginning at 8:00 p.m. The affair will be held at the Chetco Inn with dancing to follow at Don's Cliff

Hard-top Racing At Gold Beach

The Del Curry Timing Association has scheduled the first race of the 1953 season for May 24 at the Curry County Fair Ground, Gold Beach.

The DCTA wishes any persons interested in building a hard-top to contact Ben Holtzendorf at P.O. Box 532, Crescent City, for a set of rules.

The association plans a season of 15 races on the fair grounds. Announcement of meetings to discuss the racing season will be made shortly. The car rules will be similar to those used by the Del Norte Racing Association.

most complete but just enough for Henry and Irmadee to do finishing the inside, to keep them tinkering for quite a spell.

Al Sarver is back in the Eureka hospital for treatment following a very painful whack he got in his face from a breaking binder chain.

The many friends of Charlie Schall, J.P., sincerely hope for his early and complete recovery following a relapse from an operation he had about three weeks ago. Charlie was taken suddenly ill Saturday morning, rushed to Crescent City for a transfusion, and flown to Eureka.

The Roy Bolins drove out to Portland this last weekend, to attend the "capping" of their daughter, Shirley, graduating from a course as a dental nurse. Her brother, Jean, is a third-year student in Portland in the dental college.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan of Meacham, Ore., visited the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morgan, at their Ransom avenue motel last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Effie Barstow is a patient at Seaside hospital, going down, recently, from her home on the Winchuck.

Charles Shaal, county justice of peace, whose home is in Harbor, was flown to St. Joseph's hospital in Eureka on Saturday afternoon. Dr. Ronniger and Dr. Miller of Crescent City accompanied him and a specialist from San Francisco performed emergency surgery. Mr. Shaal was able to come home on Tuesday and is now much improved.

Bill Brown, chief of police, has been confined to bed with double pneumonia for the past week. He is still a very sick man.

Orton Bros. Open Fresh Fish Market

The Orton brothers will open a fish market on grounds of the Brookings Trailer Court on Friday of this week. Lester, Iris, and his son Glen will catch and sell their fish, fresh each day, from the waters of the Chetco river and coast north.

They are installing deep freeze equipment to hold filets of the fish not sold each evening. They expect to open a business that will enable residents and tourists to enjoy fish taken only a few hours before they are brought to the table.

For ambulance only—Dial 2244.
