H. E. UNITS HAVE
SPRING FESTIVAL

The Curry County Home Extension Units held their 6th Annual Spring Festival at 10:30 a. m., May 6th, at the Ophir Grange Hall. All 10 Units were represented with an attendance of 120, with visitors from Portland, Myrtle Point, Coos Bay and Coquille. Mrs. Noma Thomas was Mistress of Ceremonies for the day.

Mrs. Eva Kilpatrick of Klamath Falls, President of the Oregon State Home Extension Council, gave a fifteen minute review of the Triennial Meeting of Associated Country Women of the World, of which the Home Extension Units belongs through the affiliation of the State Council.

Tom Poffengerger, Family Life Specialist from Oregon State College, highlighted the days activities with his talk on "Preparing Our Children for the World of Reality".

4-H Members modeled their dresses and the Unit members that attended the Tailoring workshop, modeled their suits and coats. Mrs. Marian Bettis was the Style Revue narrator introducing the models and giving a very interesting word description and comments as models paraded.

The very delicious Luncheon was served by the Ophir Grange Home Economics Club in a colorful decorated dining room. The Home Extension Units furnished the center-pieces for the dining table. 1st place arrangement going to Port Orford Unit; 2nd place to Gold Beach; 3rd place to Port Orford Homemakers and Honorable mention to Gold Beach Young Home Makers.

School News

Harold Sergeant, mechanical drawing and mathematics teacher in the high school has resigned to accept the new automotive shop position in the Grants Pass High School. This is one of the largest high schools in the state, and Mr. Sergeant feels that it is an opportunity for him to head a department in which he has had most of his training.

Previously Mr. Chaney had resigned to accept the management of the Dairy Cream. Mr. Wiggins and Mr. Thompson also announced that they had other plans for next year. The past few days, Mr. Guthrie, Mr. Harrison, and Mrs. Gray signed their contracts, indicating that they would be with the high school faculty for next year.

In the grade school all teachers have signed their contracts with the exception of Mrs. Peterson, and Mrs. Carter, who are leaving at the end of the current year.

Baccalaureate Service for Brookings High School will be held at the Adventist Church on Sunday, May 24. The High School graduation program will be on Thursday, May 28, and Elementary exercises on Wednesday, May 27.

The local high school "Bruins" lost their hopes for the district Championship last Tuesday when they dropped their baseball game 8 to 2 to Bandon in the sub-district playoff. The Bruins got off to a slow start, getting men on base in most innings when Brewer and Grush hit pay dirt. Had Brookings won the game, Drain would have come to the local field for the District Playoff.
