V.F.W. Dist. Meet Grants Pass Sun.

Several members of the VFW and Ladies Auxiliary are planning on attending their district meeting at the Grants Pass VFW Building, Sunday, May 17. Those planning on driving over and others wishing transportation should contact Al Phillips or Jule Koehler, and plan to be at the Brainard home around 8 A.M. The program consists of a dinner at noon and business sessions beginning at 1:30 P.M. There are well over 1,000 veteran members, alone, in the district, which takes in Jackson and Josephine counties, and Brookings and around half that number in the Ladies Auxiliary. The local post now has 108 members.

The local Post is trying to run down three Springfield '66 carbines which belong to the firing squad. They are urgently needed.

Buddy Poppy sales will be on May 22nd and 23rd.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young returned Friday night from a two-week trip up the coast as far as Seaside where they visited Floyd's brother and wife. They also visited a brother, Harold, in Washougal. The main pastime
