will sell these badges on Saturday morning on the main street at the post offices in Brookings and Harbor. In the afternoon, they will make a trip to Crescent City to sell them there, too.

Bumper stickers advertising the festival date have been distributed with the aid of the Boy Scouts and triangular banners have been tacked in conspicuous places along Main street. Newspaper articles have been sent out to all of the newspapers in the surrounding towns, Portland and San Francisco, by Mrs. Charles Grayshel, publicity chairman.

An important part of the Azalea Festival is the participation of the high school students. Carla Willock, a senior, has been chosen as queen. The princesses are Sandra Parker, Mary Lou Berger, Elaine LeClaire and Joanne Clendenen. The court chaperones are Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. M. M. Jaklewiz, Mrs. Estes Morton and Mrs. Charles Bickner.

Last year a beautiful ceremony was inaugurated by Mrs. Harry Lockland in the form of an Azalea Chain, which will be carried out this year by Mrs. Ed Dempsey and her committee. This group is also doing the decorating of the stage or platform for the coronation ceremonies in the park. The actual building of the platform will be done by Sam Gott. Henry Kerr has offered the use of his loud speaker system, and any necessary electric wiring will be done by Mr. George Dalton; Roy Brown will be master of ceremonies at the coronation.

Hot coffee will be served with the barbecue sandwiches and this detail will be taken care of by Sam Gott, Joe Rose and Ed Hoar. "Pop" Dimmick has volunteered to set up the tables for serving the barbecue sandwiches. An information booth at the entrance to the park will be manned by Charles Grayshel.

Scout News

The Boy Scouts of Brookings had a nice meeting last Friday night when 12 people discussed a different location for the King Memorial building which would be near Azalea Park. Contributions toward this building are being donated but many things are still needed. Mike Page or Don Bingman will be glad to accept anything offered in the name of the boys.

The next meeting is at the Breem home May 22

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ROY DEO

Funeral services for Roy Deo, who passed away on Sunday at Crescent City, were held there on Wednesday, May 20. Mr. Deo was owner of the Ford Agency and Service Center there and was well known in Brookings.

Choral Club Invites Members

Anyone interested in joining our choral club, please meet at the high school Sunday evening, May 24, 7 o'clock, to purchase your music for our next spring's concert. The amount is $2.40 for all the music.

Mrs. Lee Rice, director of the chorus, would like for the ladies to study the words and parts during the summer, so that when rehearsals are resumed this fall, the members will be acquainted with their parts. They are anxious to have a large membership for their spring concert and cordially invite the ladies interested to join now.

REMEMBER THE TIME AND PLACE.

SUNDAY, MAY 24, 7:00 P.M.
AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

At the close of the Sunday evening practice the club will make its last season appearance at the baccalaureate service in the Adventist church at 8:00 p.m.

Bud Cross Resigns City Police Force

Bud Cross, resignation on the city police force was accepted with regret by the city council last week. Mr. Cross, after June 1, will be associated with his brother who is in business at Long Beach, California.

Mr. Cross has assisted Bill Brown, chief of police, for the last year.

While on the subject of police protection it has been suggested that if any time citizens wishing to contact the police may do so in a matter of minutes by calling the Sheriff's office at Gold Beach Sheriff Sabin is at all times able to contact Mr. Brown by radio.

Cemetery To Be Groomed

In conjunction with Clean-Up Week and previous to Memorial Day the William Ward Memorial Cemetery Association will clean and weed the plots and repair roads and paths.

Roy Brown, mortician, has been doing some work there and offers to give further service in helping with improvements there.

Those concerned may offer their services in the work needed to help brighten and make neat this Memorial Park.

Contact either Leo Lucas, vice president, or Ed Hoar, secretary-treasurer, to learn how to assist in this project. Your help will be deeply appreciated.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson and two daughters of Dayton, Ore., spent the weekend at the Sam J. Gott home. Mrs. Hendrickson is a sister of Mrs. Gott.

Norman K. Stacey left Monday evening for Oak Knoll Naval hospital, Oakland, for a check-up on his arm injury.

Rumors and snatches of conversation around town would lead one to believe that "Frenchy" Arrell might be in the "doghouse." Certain parties are just waiting to get a chance to get back at him for a costly practical joke he played on the bank staff this week. Advice to "Frenchy" contains something about "Keeping away from dark alleys."
