

Stokely-Chaney

Miss Jessie Stokely, daughter of Mrs. Florine Stokely of Winchester, Ky., became the bride of Herschel Chaney, Brookings, son of Mrs. Alice May Chaney and the late Charles Lee Chaney of Beatyville, Ky., on Thursday, June 4.

The double-ring ceremony was solemnized at four o'clock at the Ephesus Baptist church. The altar was decorated with white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother Malcolm Stokely. She wore a ballerina length white embroidered organdy gown, and her veil fell from a Juliet cap of organdy. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid tied with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Malcolm Stokely of Winchester, Ky., was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of white embroidered organdy over yellow and a halo of yellow carnations.

She carried a bouquet of yellow and pink carnations tied with pink streamers.

Ralph Glenn of Winchester, Ky., was best man. Lloyd Bunch and Eugene Stokely ushered.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Anna Bradley. The house was decorated throughout with summer flowers. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered cake topped with miniature bride and groom. Assisting was Mrs. Quentin Shackelford of Mt. Sterling, Ky.

For going away the bride wore a pale blue sheer dress with white accessories and her shoulder corsage was a white orchid. After a honeymoon through the southern and western states the young couple will make their home at Brookings.

The bride was graduated from Clark County High school in Winchester and Crump Commerce college at Lexington, Ky.

The groom received his B.A. and masters degrees from the University of Kentucky and has done extensive work at various colleges and universities on his doctorate. He has taught in high schools, university and private business college and is a member of Delta Psi Epsilon, an honorary fraternity for business education majors.

dent Earl Breuer. In response President Breuer said that Brookings was fortunate to have capable men and women who were willing to devote the time and effort necessary to make any Scout troop a success.

President Breuer announced that May 31 would be ladies night. A program given by one or more of the exchange students sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr will be the feature of the evening.

sociation to help them along in their work. Organizations desiring sites for their booths should contact Mrs. Arthur Knox at the Knox Insurance office as soon as possible. These are just two of the wonderful offers that have started coming in, but many more are needed to make the Lily Parade better than ever. A meeting will be held again Tuesday at The Chetco Inn, all those unable to attend the last meeting are urged to be there at 8 o'clock. The plans have been drawn and the groundwork laid, now we need help in the building.

Food Market Attracts Many

services in serving coffee when the head of food preparations, Mrs. Tigner, became so rushed with orders that she could not handle the crowds. Don Kelley, M.J.B. Coffee representative, Eureka, served as master of ceremonies during the day and furnished amusement for the guests. The microphone was of help in locating the owner of the $25 lost by Patrick Smith which was found by N. V. Stromen, Harbor.

Of the beautiful bouquets sent, the first to arrive at the meat department was arranged by Mrs. Lee Rice with some of her prize delphinium. Another was a clever display of tinted soap suds formed into lifelike flowers. These were so natural appearing that the arrangement became conversation piece and caused much merriment. The card was signed "The Hecklers."

Many other beautiful bouquets and plants were sent to the Hi-Way Market on the opening day, Saturday.

New Lions Club members are Ben Evans, radio serviceman at White Appliance and Bill Dubbs of Harbor Garage.

Busy Summer For School Staff

Harold Sergeant with his wife and son will leave Monday for Grants Pass where he will teach industrial arts next year. He will attend Oregon State summer school.

Mrs. Lillian Matthewes and Mrs. Charles Gray will go to San Jose State college on June 22.

Mrs. Doherty and her husband are now on a trip to Indiana and expected home Friday. She will go to the University of Oregon at Eugene for the summer session.

Mr. Harrison is on a southern trip and in Texas when heard from last. He will do summer work at a southern college.

Herschel Chaney will manage the Dairy Creem with the assistance of his new bride Jessie. They were married in Kentucky early in June.

Others of the school staff will be about town or engaged in activities which we will learn of later.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kessler and son Phillip were surprised Friday evening when a group of friends arrived with dinner baskets. They presented the family with a gift of copper which they might enjoy in their new home.
