Parking meters getting a watchmaker's attention. That noticeable yellow billboard at Leonards. Father finally getting his share of attention. A dirth of our country's flags displayed on Flag day. Who found Dorothy Pratt's green billfold? Dust being laid around the Central building. Lyle Vaughn tasting his floral gifts, to see if they were as good as they looked. Strong ball teams being "strange" and hard to find — aren't they Pete? That bogged down log-truck needing help. August Johnson putting the finishing touches on his new building early in the morning. Ah—sunshine.

In The Mail-box:

To the Editor
I am writing this in hopes that it will be read by many of the parents of our teen-age boys and girls. As most of them know the kids are again trying to organize a Teen-club of Brookings, and as to date have had two dances at the VFW hall with tremendous response. I have attended both of these dances at the request of the kids and believe me they have good clean fun and their behaviour is excellent. They, themselves, have elected their officers and are going to set up and enforce their own rules. We can and we must help support this organization as you all know too well that the recreational facilities for the Brookings-Harbor area are limited. So, if they should ask you to help chaperon or in some other way, get behind them and help in every way possible to give the kids good clean fun.
Signed,
Al Phillips.

Dear Madam,
They tell me a school director loses half his friends in the first month and the other half the second month. Eventually he gets some back.

I have no axes to grind. If I get some they will be sent to the Brookings Machine Shop where they have a grindstone.

In entering the directorship I feel a deep sense of responsibility to the children and people of this community.

I have a lot of confidence in the younger generation. I believe they will turn out as good as their parents.

E. F. RAPRAEGER.

Reports were read from the Coquille, Langlois, Port Orford and Gold Beach bands as to their part in the parades planned for each day of the fair. The queen committee made final plans for robe, crown and pin to be used for the queen.

There will be a calf scramble with calves already promised and children with parents' consent must contact the county agent's office if they wish to take part.

Warren Smith received a majority of votes at the Tuesday, June 16, school election on the rural school board.
