By ETHEL GOODLIN

Mrs. Mildred Maas of Arcadia spent several days visiting her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Layman and her brother Everett Woodruff, also renewing acquaintances with friends. She left Monday evening on the bus for Eureka to visit her sister, Mrs. Winifred Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom principal and teachers of Smith River Union school, in company with their nieces Kay, Jane and Joan Westbrook, left for a vacation trip to Santa Cruz. The girls will return home later. Mr. and Mrs. Ostrom will attend a six weeks session at summer school.

Hard-top Races At Gold Beach Sun.

Hard-top races will be run again on Sunday, June 28, at Gold Beach. Time trials begin at noon and the first race at 1 p.m.

Pat Smith says this will be Brookings Lions day and Queen Carla Whillock will present the winner his trophy.

The track and vicinity has been treated to settle dust and those attending will find it pleasant and comfortable.

"Butch" Lavin is official starter. Pat Smith announces the races and Ben Hollzendorf is manager and flunky in general. They promise chills, spills and a thrilling afternoon's entertainment.

Roy Wood of Bakersfield arrived by Southwest Airways plane to spend several days visiting Mrs. Mary Anthony, a sister of Mrs. Wood. They left Tuesday by plane for their home.

Rev. and Mrs. James Shelton have returned from Stockton where they attended a week's session of the Annual Conference of the Methodist church. Rev. Shelton has been appointed to the Smith River and Indian Mission church for another year.

WAR BRIDE FLIES TO VISIT MOTHER IN GERMANY

Mrs. Walter Thatcher of Harbor left by air from Crescent City on Sunday, June 21, on the first leg of a trip to Germany to see her mother and brother in Weisbaden. Mrs. Thatcher came to Brookings five years ago as a war bride and her 11-year-old son came to join her just before Christmas a year ago. She will spend two months in Europe and will see her brother's three small children for the first time. Plans are under way for her mother to make her future home in the States, too.

TEEN-AGE NEWS

Entertainment committee: Bonnie Kay Mincer, Roy Dirks, Jeff Kerr, Barry Sage and Joan Tuler.

Refreshment committee: Barry Sage and Jack Malone.

Clean-Up committee: Art Stone, Jeff Kerr, Doug Dok, Jerry Anderson and Stanley Gribble.

We plan to have a Teen-Age dance every other Friday at the V.F.W. hall starting at 8 o'clock. Joanne Clenderin, Janet Bailey, Bev. Glass and Peggy Gran will help sell teen-age membership cards, costing 50c each. This card and 25c is the price to enter the dance. Without the card the price is 50 cents.

Purchaser of this card is entitled to all the rights and privileges of this organization. This card admits member to all teen-age club functions with the exception of special activities to which there will be admission charged.

Fire Dept. Acquires Tank Truck

The City Fire department lately acquired a 3,000 gallon tank truck at a good price, through Fred Fox as an auxiliary water supply in the emergency of second or third alarm fires. This is definitely an addition to the city fire equipment for the protection of life and property within the city of Brookings.

The firemen under Neil Nelson are glad to have this help in subduing fires quickly.

Making a Long Distance Call?

SERVICE IS FASTEST WHEN YOU CALL BY NUMBER

You'll save time and get your party more quickly, if you make your long distance calls by number. Keep a list handy of the long distance telephone numbers most frequently called. Add to it, each time you call a new number.

Whenever you call, give the operator the number — and you'll avoid unnecessary delay.
