

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

Three new members were elected to the Langlois school board at the election held Monday. Dick Barklow, Ray Waterman and Paul Smith were the gentlemen elected.

Langlois Daily Vacation Bible school closed Friday evening after a very successful session. There was an average attendance of about 85. The program Friday evening was a demonstration of some of the things the children had learned during the two weeks they attended. Also a display of their handicraft was in evidence.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wilcox gathered at their home Monday evening for a potluck dinner honoring Mr. Wilcox's birthday. A social evening followed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoults of Patos Island of the San Juans, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bennett over the past weekend at Cape Blanco.

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. William Kramer, born June 11 at Bandon hospital. This is the second boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pancratz of Auburn, Wash., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bennett at Cape Blanco.

Cheryl and Mrs. Marlowe spent last week in North Bend visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Gallia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fuhman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lamb of Coquille and Mamie Speagle, a guest enjoyed a picnic lunch at Humbug park last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sweet entertained Tuesday evening with a family dinner honoring their son Ralph's birthday.

Mrs. Maude Porter of Portland, sister of Mrs. Jo Oscar has been visiting in the Oscar home for the past two weeks. She left for her home Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffen and daughter Juanita of Myrtle Point spent Sunday, June 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barklow. The group celebrated the 19th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Barklow with a dinner at the Castaway in Port Orford.

The parents and sister of Richard Mooney from Elma, Wash., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bennett on the Ralph Cope ranch where Richard is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins, Joyce, Doris and Warren, Mrs. Lulu Cope, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sweet of Bandon and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cope of Langlois drove to Powers and Agness having a picnic dinner at Agness Sunday. They reported the road in good condition.

Mr. Culver from San Francisco is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hildebrand for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hefner and children of Roseburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jo Nilsen and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stonecypher from Thursday to Sunday of this week.

Joanne Stonecypher left with the 4-H group Tuesday a.m. for Corvallis to attend the 4-H summer school.

Le Ella Kamph just returned from a week's vacation in Ukiah, Calif., visiting with the Bruchler family. She attended Patsy Bruchler's graduation exercises.

Jerry Kamph moved the Earl Longanecher family to Grants Pass this week end. Earl will be employed at the chrome depot by the government.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Alger have gone to Lakeview to visit their son and look after interests there. They expect to be gone a month.

Ralph Cope went to Montague, Calif. for a load of hay the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Charles Jensen and children, Wilbur, Merrie, Bonnie and Jenny left for Portland Tuesday. They will spend about a week visiting friends and relatives.

Dear Minna Akers:

Just a line now as I am head over heels in work. I should say from my heels to my head in paint.

We have been having some showers here, but some really nice warm weather, too.

Received my "Pilot" last week and was very sorry to hear about Mr. Gould. I like both of them a lot and hope he will be O.K. soon.

Sincerely,

JESSIE SISK
