BIBLE SCHOOL GROWING

The Daily Vacation Bible school, held each morning at the Smith River church is progressing nicely, with a good attendance of children present for the classes. The program schedule each morning is singing, Bible stories, games, land crafts, drawing and painting. The school will close Friday evening, when the children will have on display the work they have done during the two weeks session. All parents and friends are invited to attend this evening session.

LEGIONNAIRES WORK

About 15 American Legion boys of Post 712 turned out last Sunday to lay new asphalt shingles on the Community Hall. The building has been in need of a new roof. The ladies of the Auxiliary served a pot luck dinner in the hall at noon for the working men.

Anyone who would like to help with this community project is welcome to come.

GOLD BEACH VISITORS

Recent visitors at Smith River were Mrs. Dolly Jean Adams, and her sister, Mrs. June Moore, both of Gold Beach, who called on their grandmother, Mrs. Eva Hill. They also attended the Lily Parade at Brookings. The sisters are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Zahni Crockett of Pistol River.

SHELTONS HAVE GUESTS

Week end guests of Rev. and Mrs. James Shelton and children were Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Depew and son David of Los Angeles and Mrs. Marietta Smith of Bell, who is a sister of Mrs. Depew. The visitors were guests at the church service on Sunday.

DAUGHTER VISITS MOORES

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore are enjoying a visit from their daughter and her children of Redding, Calif., who arrived for their vacation.

CHILDREN LEARN TO SWIM

About 65 children from Smith River area signed up for the Red Cross swimming lessons held on Smith river near Hiouchi bridge. Joe Reichlin, driver of the Crescent Elk school bus, picks up all children of school age who attend the classes each day.

MRS. GOODLIN SIGHT-SEEING

Mrs. Alf Goodlin, accompanied by her granddaughter Nadine Lehmkul and Amelia Shelton went to Gold Beach Wednesday for several days vacation and sight seeing.
