New Pastor for Lutheran Church

The Rev. Harry F. Miller, recently installed as the new pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Crescent City, California, has begun serving the Lutheran Mission which holds services each Sunday evening in St. Timothy Episcopal Church, across from the school here in Brookings.

Rev. Miller is a native of Tacoma, Wash., but has been the pastor of St. Luke Lutheran Church, Winamac, Ind., for the past nine years, before accepting the call to the Crescent City parish. Rev. and Mrs. Miller and daughters, Claudia, 8, and Connie, 5, are residing at 754 I street in Crescent City.

The local Lutheran group hopes to make arrangements in the near future so that Sunday morning worship and Sunday school may be held for the Lutherans in this area each Sunday morning. Those of the Lutheran faith and all others who have no church home are cordially invited to attend all services, which are at present held each Sunday at 7:30 p.m.
