Grand Patriarch I.O.O.F. To Visit

Conrad E. Hale, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of California, I.O.O.F., will pay an official visitation to Madrona Encampment No. 135 of Crescent City on Wednesday evening, August 19, in the I.O.O.F. hall in Brookings.

This will be an eventful evening for Madrona Encampment as it is one of the very few Encampments that is chartered in one state and legally holds meetings in another. Madrona Encampment No. 135 is chartered in the state of California but due to the fact that its membership is drawn from both communities, Brookings and Crescent City, the Grand Patriarchs of the Grand Encampments of Oregon and California granted special dispensations to this Encampment to hold one of the two meetings each month in Brookings and one in Crescent City.

A short business session will open promptly at 7:30 p.m. (standard time) in the I.O.O.F. hall in Brookings, to which all Camp members in the neighboring communities are invited and urged to attend. An open informal session at 8:30 p.m. around the supper table, prepared and served by Topaz Rebekah Lodge No. 241, Brookings, for members of all branches of the Order—Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Camp—to hear remarks by Grand Patriarch Hale, and other dignitaries present. M. L. Morgan, Chief Patriarch of Madrona Encampment, will preside at these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Bell came home August 8 from a 5 weeks visit among friends and relatives in Gilroy, Fort Bragg and Fresno, Calif., and report a delightful time and most wonderful and restful vacation.

4-H NEWS

A class in jelly-making and canning is being formed for girls 11 to 13 years. Those with some knowledge of cooking will benefit greatly and the finished product will be displayed at the Curry County Fair at Gold Beach, August 1, 22, 23 in competition with other 4-H groups.

Mrs. Mabel Thompson is leader of this group and asks that anyone having fruits and vegetables that the girls may use for practice canning please contact her. Pint jars and those smaller are also needed and will be appreci-
