

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

This has been a busy week for the people of Curry County who have participated in the Curry County Fair. The Kenneth Thompson family of Langlois spent more than a week right in Gold Beach to see that every detail was ironed out. The new barns were in use making it possible to house the fair animals. The agricultural display was limited due to a short growing season. The 4-H display and new kitchen attracted the attention of all who visited the Fair as being outstanding. Much credit is due our new County Agent Kenneth Priest and Home Demonstration Agent Sylvia Lee as well as the 4-H members, for an outstanding job, well done. We are proud of Jeanette Thompson who won a trip to the State Fair and the 4-H Summer School next year with her canning demonstration. Bobby Jean Sypher won many blue ribbons in competition with the women in the home economics department. Mary Donaldson made an excellent showing with her stock in the judging of cattle and showmanship.

The Isenhart boys brought two beautiful fat Angus yearlings to be sold. From the Edwards ranch came more of those beautiful Angus stock. Herb Morrill showed some excellent white face bulls. Credit is due everyone from this area who worked so hard to make our fair a success. Mrs. Frank Turner had her livestock club at the fair and also chaperoned the 4-H girls dormitory.

H. S. Cadman was present with his 4-H livestock club capturing many of the prizes.

Nancy Moore returned from a session at Portland State Summer School Monday. She was surprised by a house warming and dinner given by her parents in the new Moore home. It was a family affair, May Hollingsworth being the other member of the family present.

Mrs. Richard Bree of Chehalis, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Erickson of Denmark. A brother, James E. Stuphin of Groveland, Fla., is also visiting at the Erickson home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jordan of Arizona have been visiting their friends of long standing, Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven.

Mrs. Ringhiemer of Garberville, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kudna of Portland and Don Ringhiemer, home from the Navy, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown on Flora's Lake road.

Frank O. Crockett of Truth or Consequences, N.M. visited the Brazel and Williams families in Denmark this past week.

Mrs. Gladys Harlow and daughter Charlene of Eugene visited with Docia Sweet and other friends in this area the fore part of the week. She formerly taught school at Ophir and many of our young people were her students.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins of Truckee, Calif., visited friends at the Fair this week and also visited in Langlois, spending Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hicks and daughter of Portland are spending the week with the Kenneth Thompson family. Mrs. Hicks is Kenneth's sister.

Mrs. Frank Turner took David Drake of Tiffin, Ohio to Portland Tuesday to catch the plane for home. David has spent the summer at the Turner home and working on the Sweet ranch learning about dairying and dairy cattle.

Marge Farrier of Sixes visited her sister, Irene Howe, in Van-

Faculty Lists Near Completion

Faculty lists were virtually completed this week for Brookings-Harbor schools, as opening day neared for local students.

The high school staff has been completed, and most of the teachers for the elementary school have been signed, according to Joe Tobin, principal of the grade school. Applications are being considered now to round out the few vacancies left.

Nine instructors will staff the high school this year, and seventeen have been chosen for the elementary school, with a few more to be listed.
