

Elaine LaClair Bride of Clark

Elaine La Clair, daughter of Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, became the bride of Harold Lee Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Powers, Oregon, Saturday at 5:00 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Cooper of Gold Beach in the presence of the two families and close friends.

Mr. T. Cooper officiated at the ceremony for which the bride wore a navy blue suit with red accessories and a corsage of red rose buds and bouvardia.

Miss Lois La Clair was her sister's attendant and wore a blue and white nylon dress with a corsage of white and pink carnations.

George Clark was best man for his son.

Mrs. Joe Zumpfe wore for her daughter's wedding an aqua suit with pink and grey accessories with a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. George Clark, mother of the groom, wore a brown checked suit, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

After the ceremony the wedding group drove to the Rod and Reel and had a wedding supper. The young couple cut their three-tier wedding cake which was trimmed with pink and white rose buds.

Harold Clark left by plane for Camp Roberts where he is stationed on Monday and Mrs. Clark will follow shortly to reside in Pasa Robles to be near her husband.

Burrell-Mathis Vows Said In Impressive Ceremony

A wedding of interest to many residents of this area took place at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Coos Bay on Sunday, June 14, when Miss Diane Burrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Burrell of North Bend became the bride of Robert E. Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Mathis of Coos Bay.

The Rev. Robert L. Green performed the double ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon. Calla lilies and Croft Easter lilies were used at the altar and carried out the all-white floral theme.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon net fashioned with a tiered skirt of pleated nylon. Pleated nylon net enhanced with seed pearls and rhinestones formed a crown holding her fingertip veil, and she carried a white Bible on which rested a white orchid, and from which fell a cascade of stephanotis.

Mrs. Williard Waggoner of Bandon was the matron of honor, and Mrs. Rex Zumwalt, Miss Marilyn Struebing and Miss Jo Steagall, all Alpha Omicron Pi sorority sisters of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The attendants all carried bouquets of calla and Croft lilies.

Marilyn Burrell, cousin of the bride, and Julie Ann Springer were the flower girls. Richard Springer, another cousin of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Jim Bauer of Coos Bay, was best man for the bridegroom, and Gordon Bradford, a Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity brother, Bert Wilson Jr., and Evan Johnson, a cousin of the bride, were the ushers. Larry O'Dell, as soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Joaquina Hillstrom.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony and was held in the parish hall. The bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered pedestal cake which was encircled with Rubrum and Croft lilies. The silver candelabra used on the bride's table were heirlooms of the bride's family, as was the tablecloth which had been used at the wedding of the bride's great-great-grandmother and is 100 years old.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Leroy Springer and Mrs. Frank Burrell, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Roy Springer, her grandmother; Miss Alpha Jane Clinkerbeard, Miss Colleen Chowning and Miss Gloria Gorbett, sorority sisters of the bride, and Miss Pat Cagley and Mrs. Bert Wilson Jr.

Following a wedding trip to California the newlyweds will make their home in Portland where the bridegroom will enter the University of Oregon Dental School in September. The bride was graduated from Bandon High School and Oregon State College at Corvallis. The bridegroom also attended Oregon State College.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zumpfe, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struebing and daughter Marilyn, all of Harbor.

The bride is well known in this area as she lived here with her family for several years before they moved to Bandon to make their home. She attended the local schools and took an active part in the social doings of the teenagers, being a princess on the Azalea Queens court one year.

REESERS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Widmer of Albany, Ore., stopped a few days last week to visit Mrs. Widmer's brother, Ray H. Reeser and Mrs. Reeser. The Widmers left Albany in January going east to New York and on to Europe where they spent six months and then returned home through the southern tier of states. Their son, Royce and his wife are now residents of Brookings.

A nephew of Mr. Reeser, Art Barksdale, and his wife were also guests of the Reesers for the first half of the week. They all returned to their homes last Thursday.
