

JOYS' GARDEN LOVELY

Outstanding among the lovely coastal gardens are the tuberous begonia gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joy of Harbor. Here under the great spruce trees are hundreds of blooming begonias in colorful array — and on the trees are hanging baskets with trailing begonias. Bordering the garden is the deep blue of the lobelia forming a picture which would be a credit to any floral or home and garden magazine. Incidentally, Mr. Joy, who is an ardent gardener, thinks that the kelp which he brings up from the beach for his compost pile did a lot for the blooming begonias.

MRS. BEEM IN S.F.

Mrs. Cliff Beem visited San Francisco, last week end, for a short stay. While there, she visited the Mel Venter Breakfast gang, a radio program, and had a very enjoyable time.

MYTHS TO SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smyth will visit Salem this coming weekend, seeing friends and relatives there.

Initiates
Beta Sigma Phi

In a lovely candlelight ceremony Wednesday, August 26, at the home of Mrs. Bud Wethern 13 local young women were initiated into the international organization of Beta Sigma Phi.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Chet Thompson, a member from the Aberdeen, Washington chapter, the new Brookings-Harbor chapter Beta Iota, was formed.

Coming from other cities to assist Mrs. Thompson with the initiation were Mrs. Ben Holtzenlorf and Mrs. Milton Clay of Crescent City and June Dickson of Tacoma, Wash.

The new Beta Sigma Phi pledges are Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. Wayne Bolvi, Miss Geraldine Beem, Mrs. Roy Brown, Janet Foster, Mrs. Fred Flynn, Mrs. Merle Hanscam, Mrs. Ben Jewell, Mrs. Leland Lewis, Mrs. James Moe, Mrs. Robert Vincent, Mrs. Harry Webb and Mrs. Bud Wethern.

After their initiation the following officers were installed: Mrs. Fred Flynn, president; Mrs. James Anderson, vice president; Janet Foster, recording secretary; Mrs. Wayne Bolvi, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ben Jewell, treasurer; Mrs. Bud Wethern, extension officer; Mrs. Leland Lewis, historian. Mrs. Harvey Foster was installed as the new group's sponsor-adviser.

The group received a lovely basket of chrysanthemums from the Aberdeen chapter in honor of the forming of the new chapter.

Following the initiation refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wethern and Mrs. Webb, with Mrs. Foster pouring.

The next meeting will be on September 15 at the home of Mrs. Foster with Mrs. Flynn and Geraldine Beem at co-hostesses.
