Kenneth Oliver, commander of District 7, Oregon V.F.W., flew over from his Shady Cove home to visit the local post, last Wednesday evening, probably the first official visitation by air in the area.

Oliver came in a Cessna plane piloted by John Jones, in company with Dan Krotz, all members of the Shady Cove post, in 45 minutes, landing at the White Ranch where they were greeted by Russel White and brought into town.

White and Krotz learned they were at Cape Gloucester, New Guinea, at the same time and Jones made his first contact since leaving the service with former Esperitu Santo veterans, Louis Webb and Ralph Wallace.

During the meeting one item of business was voting into gift membership Dr. Ed Samuels, in recognition of his wonderful blood typing service. Samuels, an ex-marine, saw long service in the western Pacific.

The post contributed $25 toward the purchase of a television set to be used by the "wheelchair jockeys," at Camp White.

At the September 16 meeting the district inspector, Allon Bohannon of Medford, and the district Auxiliary president, Mrs. Bohannon, and party will be guests of the Brookings groups.

Louis B. "Happy" Coyle, long a resident of this area, is now at the Veterans Home, Camp White. Mrs. Palm Stout, by whom he has been employed as caretaker for many years, and Mrs. Arthur Driskell, a long time friend, took "Happy" over, recently. He is a

Minor Injuries In Accident

A California woman was slightly injured in an automobile accident just north of Brookings Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Oakes suffered slight cuts and bruises after her car was involved in a collision with an unidentified car going south.

According to witnesses, the other car, occupied by a group of soldiers, was nearing Mrs. Oakes' car when the steering knuckle broke. The car swerved into the other lane, hitting Mrs. Oakes' car. No other persons involved were injured.

Mrs. Oakes was treated for her cuts by Dr. White, and released.

veteran of World War I whose health became such it was better for him not to be alone as much as he was here.
