

Right Around Here

By MAX BRAINARD

Al Swanberg sold his place out in the Easy Street section, where he had lived for several years, and went to southern California. He plans to fish off the Mexican coast with old friends.

The many friends of the Bob Swansons are glad to know that their Connie may be on the way to recovery. She was formerly reported requiring a brain operation at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hull and family have moved into their new home, a mile or so west of Brookings, which they purchased from Don Aults.

It is reported that the Catholic diocese has bought, from the Charles Engstrom estate, the next lot east of their holdings on Redwood street. Father Hamilton says they plan to make it into a much needed parking area.

Albert Folkner, who long lived in the Winchuck valley, and has been a patient in the Veterans hospital, Vancouver, has been visiting around while recuperating from an operation on his leg.

Al looks a lot better and figures he'll be discharged in about another month or so.

Bugs having a name they probably wouldn't recognize themselves, have sure done a swell job in eradicating the pestiferous Golden Ragwort, or "Klamath Weed" from the Long Ridge area. Three or four years ago the weed was destroying the range. Now, hardly a plant can be found and these are in pretty bad shape. The weed was rapidly moving down the whole Chetco valley, some showing right in Brookings. It is hoped the bugs followed the spread.

Last Thursday evening a carload of members of the local VFW post visited their neighbor veterans in Cave Junction. Those making the trip were Louis Webb, Al Phillips, Art Bollinger, Julius Koehler and M. S. Brainard. The latter veterans are district officers. Plans for the District 7 meeting at Medford on Sunday, Oct. 4 were furthered. A large delegation of veterans and their ladies from Brookings is expected.

Henry Grootendorst was rushed to Gold Beach hospital Sunday afternoon, where Dr. W. A. Cartwright performed an emergency appendectomy.

Louis Peterson is mighty glad to be back home following a major operation, at Barnes Veterans hospital, Vancouver. He says Sid Luce, also there for surgery, was operated upon the day before "Pete" left, and feeling mighty pert.

Billy and Barbara Hall, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall of the state line left Tuesday for Eureka to enroll at Pacific College where they have been attending school. Billy is a senior this year. They spent the vacation months at the parental home.
