Right Around Here

By MAX BRAINARD

With a pleasing line-up, both sides of the counter during a recent morning coffee hour, Chad is reported to have been detected headed for his "office" with a color book and a box of assorted crayolas.

It is reported that two of Mrs. Josie DeMartin's brothers came down from Portland and took her out to a sanitarium. She had been living on the old Kemp place, on the Winchuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Birch of Medford attended the last meeting of the local VFW Post and Auxiliary. Mrs. Birch was born in Port Orford, the daughter of the late Bertha (Sutton) Ashman, and a niece of county assessor George Sutton. She is the Auxiliary representative for the Camp White Domiciliary.

With the lily harvest at its busiest many of the local women are finding plenty of work in the fields and packing sheds. It is reported the crop is not so good this year due to extra shoots sprouting from the bulbs. As soon as the salable bulbs are out of the way there will be a comparatively short period of replanting.

Art Pierce has started putting asbestos shingles on the Baptist Community Church.

Bob Bowlin and Glen Orton left for the service, last week, via the Del Norte county draft board.

Those pretty signs in the bowling alley sure doll the place up. There is space for quite a few more, looks like. They seem to be the handiwork of Bud Stuart, who can rightfully claim to be a real commercial artist, if he did 'em.

Kathleen Phelps, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Phelps, is the proud possessor of a premium check from Marion County for awards won on cookbooks and record book entered in the Marion County 4-H Spring Show.

Henry La Barge left on the midnight bus Tuesday night to enter the Veteran's hospital in Portland.

Girl Letterettes

Tuesday, Sept. 18, members of the B.H.S. Letterettes gave a party for two new members with a progressive dinner. The cocktail, Mrs. Charles Gray; soup, Joanne Clendenin; salad, Lois Chapman; main dish, Pat Herman and Arline Sanders; dessert, Bev. Glass.

A semi-formal initiation ceremony ended the evening. Diana Bowlin, and Elaine White were unable to attend.

A short meeting was held to discuss the plans for the G.A.A. initiation.

Monday, Sept. 21, members of the B.H.S. Letterettes initiated the G.A.A. girls since this will be the first year the association is being formed. The evening started with a dinner and ended with individual skits.

Those initiated were: Kay Nicholas, Janet Bailey, Peggy Gran, Mary Hall, Jeanne Darger, Lois LaClair, Karen Wallace, Carolyn Hansen, Sherrel McClain, Loreita Waldien, Dixie Allsup, DeEtta Hyland, Peggy Moffitt, Jo Anne Pettigrew, Sylvia Gates, Dorothy Rowley, Janet Crump, Barbara Hedberg, Marlene Olson, Kay O'Holleran, Joan Hanlean.

Those unable to attend were Lois Chapman, Mary Knapp, Sharon Center and Hazel Pate.

Don't Try O'Brien

Advice regarding the possibilities of going up the Chetco and coming out at O'Brien is, "DON'T!" The trip might be made in a jeep but whoever makes it would probably be affected for life and it might be detrimental to their progeny, if any. There is a sign at the base of Vulcan peak warning that the road is passable from there on by jeep, only, and no truer word was ever chalked on a bit of cedar or any other kind of slab.

But the road, out that far, is surprisingly good. In fact, it is good to the left of the fork there, clear to Fred Gardner's chrome mine, on the northeast side of the peak, at the head of Box Canyon creek. Further around the rim, Fred and Nick Baumgardner and Pete and Louie Stoller are just starting to get out chrome. Both shows are up around 4500 feet and will be closed when the first heavy storm comes.

Cliff House Gets License; Opens 2d

The State Liquor Commission granted a license last week to the Cliff House, thereby assuring the opening of the local night club.

Because of delays in the arrival of furnishings, however, the club will not open tomorrow as formerly scheduled. New opening date is set for Friday, October 2.

E. B. Watson and K. A. Carr, who will operate the Cliff House, report that other arrangements are virtually complete for the opening. Entertainment has been scheduled for the debut, and the service staff is being completed at the present.

An orchestra has been signed for the Friday opening, and a Hammond organ and piano which will be used regularly arrived this week.

BROWNS VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown left Tuesday on a two weeks vacation trip... but they're not sure which way they're going. Chief Brown wants to go South. Mrs. Brown wants to go North. Betting is prohibited in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCullough of Myrtle Creek visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Joe Sedra, this past week end. Miss Frances McCullough, who has been visiting here returned with them, en route to her home at Portland.

NOTICE
The Rod and Gun Club card party that was scheduled for September 26 will be postponed until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockland, Seattle, are here this week on vacation.
