

Teacher's Reception

The first P-TA meeting of the current school year, under the direction of Mrs. Ellen Arrell, was a real success with about a hundred parents and all but one teacher present. Mrs. Garcia, fifth grade teacher, was unable to come as she fell and was hurt Thursday after school.

The teachers were introduced by children representing the various grades.

Introducing the teachers were: First grade, Connie Freeman; 2nd grade, Brodey Smith; 3rd grade, Nancy Hendricks; 4th grade, Bobby Wallen; 5th grade, Carl Hedberg; 6th grade, Janet Mosier; 7th grade, Ann Matot; 8th grade, Larry Way. The student body president of the High School, Ray Western, introduced the High School teachers.

Following the introductions each teacher was presented with a corsage or boutonniere by Phyllis Cole, Mary Chapin, Janet Glass and Carol Rausch who were dressed in pastel formals. The corsages were made by Alice Rausch and her committee, with a special begonia corsage for Mr.

Hampton.

Members adjourned to the Elementary school rooms and room representatives were elected. They will be introduced at the next meeting, October 8.

The program presented consisted of a ballet dance by Diane Cargill, pupil of Blossom Behee, a comic skit by Margaret Bruer and Alice Rausch, and group singing led by Mr. Dick with Mrs. Beem accompanying at the piano.

Home made cakes were served by Mrs. Doris Hampton, hospitality chairman, and members of the executive committee who were hostesses for the evening.
