

Brookings People Approve of Center

An overwhelming majority of Brookings business houses and residents approve the idea of a new community center here, according to a survey conducted by August DePhillips.

Of 88 business houses contacted by DePhillips, 85 signed the survey as favoring the center. A

Ellsworth Here For Chamber Dinner (If there's Dinner)

Representative Harris Ellsworth will be guest of honor at a Chamber of Commerce dinner in Brookings next week.

But he's apt to be lonesome. Representative Ellsworth is coming Friday, October 9, according to Charles Grayshel, who invited him. And the Chamber dinner is scheduled for Saturday, October 10.

We don't think it's too serious, though. Next issue, we hope to have the correct time and place... complete with Representative Ellsworth.

VICE PRESIDENT OF BANK IN BROOKINGS

A. R. Bergman of Seattle, vice president and a director of the Oregon State Bank of Brookings and vice president of the Peoples National Bank of Washington in Seattle, was a week end visitor in Brookings.

Bergman was in town in connection with his banking interests here. In answer to inquiries regarding the bank, stated he was very pleased with the manner in which residents of the area patronized the Oregon State Bank.

Bergman further stated that the many friends in Brookings of former popular bank cashier "Harry" Lyness and Mrs. Lyness would be interested in knowing that Harry is now connected with the firm of Quinn, White and Prince of Seattle and New York. Harry and Mrs. Lyness are living in Seattle at 706 Edgar street.

Mr. Bergman stated that each time he returned for a visit to Brookings he observed many new improvements in the city.

Proportionate number of other people approved the measure.

Necessary now, according to DePhillips, is a sponsoring organization to mother the proposal. Such an organization would delve into the requirements of such a center, and would frame legislation to permit the city to engage in the building of such a center.

Because of the size of the project, it would take a great deal of study and time to get such a proposal in form. Accordingly, Mr. DePhillips hopes that some sorority or club will undertake sponsorship of the center as a project.

Legion Auxiliary Entertains Pres.

Chetco Unit No. 138 of the American Legion Auxiliary recently entertained their District 30 president, Mrs. Fern Neas of Oakland, Ore., with a luncheon at the Chetco Inn. She was accompanied by her own unit president, Mrs. Ruth Edwards.

The tables were decorated with flowers and candles. Two solos were furnished by Mrs. Donnelly, accompanied by Mrs. Norine Harvey. A number of other guests were present.

The Auxiliary will meet October 5 at 8 p.m. at the Rod and Gun club and lay plans for the coming year which promises to be a busy one. All members from other units as well as prospective members are urged to attend. There never was a greater need for the women relatives of our veterans to back up their program and work toward world peace.

The Legion will also meet the same night and wish all members and those eligible to attend.

New Transformers In At Sub-Station

Three new transformers are being installed in the Brookings sub-station by the Coos-Curry Co-op.

The three transformers, each of 2500 KVA capacity, will replace three 833 KVA transformers now in use.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

The executive committee of the PTA will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 1, at 8 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Frenchy Arrel. Mrs. Gladys Kanick will be hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Manley left Tuesday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Manley's sister in San Rafael. They plan to return on Monday.
