Send Clothing To Korea

By DR. CHARLES DURDEN

This morning, October 6, the vans left the church, carrying to Church World Service at Oakland, Calif., a ton and a quarter of used clothing collected by the churches of Brookings. It is for service in needy, war-torn Korea. We also sent over $100 to the Council for handling.

We earnestly thank all who have so generously helped in a fine enterprise. It is good for us, and we hope that it brings comfort, warmth and blessing to a stricken people.

The churches are greatly indebted to Fox Bros. for their cooperation, and to Freightways for service freely given to us. Nor do we forget that any enterprise we undertake depends a good deal upon the publicity we receive by hundreds of the Brookings-Harbor Pilot.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

WISDOM

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.—James 1:5.

Wisdom is oftentimes nearer when we stoop than when we soar.—Wordsworth.

Wisdom allows nothing to be good that will not be so forever; no man to be happy but he that needs no other happiness than what he has within himself; no man to be great or powerful that is not master of himself.—Seneca.

Wisdom is only in truth.—Goethe.

Wisdom in human action begins with what is nearest right under the circumstances, and thence achieves the absolute.—Mary Baker Eddy.

The intellect of the wise is like glass; it admits the light of heaven and reflects it.—August W. Hare.

LOVE

You can take nothing greater to the heathen world than the impress and the reflection of the Love of God upon your own character. That is the universal language.—Henry Drummond.

All loves should be simply stepping-stones to the love of God.—Plato.

Love is to the moral nature what the sun is to the earth.—Honore de Balzac.

Love makes obedience lighter than liberty.—William R. Alger.

INDUSTRY

Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.—II Chron. 15:7.

Flies can spread as many as 20 different diseases among humans. Your grater never need be washed after you've used it for grating lemon rind, cheese, etc. You'll save time and sore fingers if you put it in a warm oven for a few minutes, then flick it with a clean cloth. The heat will dry the crumbs which can simply be dusted away.

A brave man inspires others to heroism, but his own courage is not diminished when it enters into other souls: it is stimulated and invigorated.—(Washington Glad-den)
