

Presbyterian Party Is Huge Success

The local Presbyterians wish to sincerely thank those who contributed so generously at their party, last Friday evening, at the VFW hall and regretted that it was just impossible to take care of any more people than they had planned for, due to physical limitations. They are also very pleased with the substantial and wholehearted welcome expressed for their leaders, the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Bronson.

Features of the selling were the active bidding for a folded bit of currency, the profits thereby being known only to the sponsors and to Henry Kerr and Dr. McKenna, the latter greatly assisting Dr. Ronniger in securing a roast turkey that happened to be left over. Paul sure walked out of there with a mess of groceries and was just as pleased with his purchases as Lloyd Moss was when he won the folding baby bath. Mary English took home a wonderful garden implement plus a mess of heavy grocery Lee better keep his eyes on. Bob Swan bought a bundle of carrots with which he chinked in the crannies left gaunt when he turkeyed up and Rickie Haggerty finally won her coveted bucket of Readymix. Believe it or not, Henry Kerr bought twelve sheets of plywood and got a bargain, too.

MRS. MEYER HERE

Mrs. Fred Meyer of San Francisco is visiting Rex and Faye Hayes. Mrs. Meyer came expressly to tell the salmon that her husband, Dr. Fred Meyer, wouldn't be here this year, and that it was therefore safe to go up the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Putnam and his brother and wife of Redding, left the first of the week on a vacation trip. They flew to New York and will visit Washington, D.C. Their plans were to pick up a new car to use on the three weeks vacation.

NEW RESIDENTS

New residents in the Harbor area are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Allenby and their son George who is an eighth grader this year. The Allenby's formerly lived in Salem.

CROCKETT'S SON HOME

Pfc. Vernon Crockett, who is stationed at Camp Roberts, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett.

Word has been received by Mrs. Charles Bickner that her son, Arthur Benson, and family have settled in St. Petersburg, Fla.

He has just recently opened his office there as chiropractor, using the Palmer method.
