Miners Active Around Vulcan Peak Area

Mining activities in the vicinity of Vulcan Peak are progressing. "Spider" Clement was out, this past weekend, framing in a house for the Baumgardner boys and Pete and Louie Stoller, and Fred Gardner and his crew are getting out quite a bit of well-paying ore. All hands plan to stay in and work this winter. They'll have a bulldozer out there to use in case it gets too rough. They probably won't do much living off the country as the only game they've seen in the area is one yearling deer and one forked horn. There's not much feed for critters around there. They all said Harry Hill has a pretty good looking lay on the other side of the mountain but will have to do a lot of road improving and shoring before they can get out much ore.

The Stollers sent in some samples that showed quite a bit of gold and copper but their principal interest is in chrome.

PTA MEETS

The regular meeting of Smith River Union School PTA was held Monday evening at the school-house. President Mrs. Patsy Westbrook presided. Several important matters were taken care of during the business session.

During the program hour Miss Dorothy Morton, public health nurse, gave a talk on the school health program. Another speaker was Miss Irene Trethewey, consultant in primary education.

Plans are being made for the community Halloween party to be held at the Community hall Saturday evening, Oct. 31. Ronald McClish will show a motion picture and will be master of ceremonies. The children will come in costume and prizes will be awarded. Games and a good time are promised to all, both young and old.

At close of the evening meeting doughnuts and coffee were served in the cafeteria room. Halloween motifs were carried out in the table decorations. Serving on the refreshment committee were Lotie Hocking, Mary Johnson, Ethel Goodlin and Evelyn Reichlin.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Eddie Westbrook is spending a few days at Seaside hospital under observation and treatment for a heart ailment by advice of her physician, Dr. Don Miller.

MISS WATERS HERE

Miss Rose Waters arrived Sunday from Beverly Hills for her vacation. She accompanied her mother, Mrs. Charles Spooner, to Portland where the latter undergoes a checkup at Portland Sanitarium.

MRS. BARNES AWAY

Mrs. Miriam Barnes is enjoying a visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Baker and daughter of Norwick, Kansas, who enjoyed the motor trip and beautiful scenery out west.

Fishing Erratic In the Chetco

Fishing was erratic in the Chetco last week, with good days spotted between bad ones.

Muddy water late in the week was cutting the catch, which had been excellent around Saturday and Sunday.

A number of good sized fish came out of the river Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Boller brought out a 36 pounder Friday, and Frances Carroll of Santa Monica hooked her first fish, a 35 pounder.

It wasn't only the rain that was keeping the salmon in the river, though. In an exclusive interview, one chinook said that he refused to be caught by any one other than Dr. Fred Meyer of San Francisco, who fishes the Chetco yearly.

"If that tooth-jerker doesn't show up soon, with his friends, One Cast Lestr and Wirebender Terwilliger, I'm going back to sea," the salmon declared. "I was nice enough to come in here so they could catch me (they couldn't catch anything else), and if they don't appreciate the Chetco enough to come fishing, it'll serve them right."

Mrs. Meyer is striving valiantly to replace her husband, catching salmon at the door of Cedar Lane Cannery and hauling them in... by the tail. At that, she's probably getting more fish than her husband would.

VFW News

By MAX BRAINARD

At its last Wednesday evening meeting the local VFW Post voted $25 to help defray the costs of the blood typing program. The ladies are contributing their share in doing the clerical work. Ed Samuels, who is doing the typing, managed to get to the post meeting and be initiated, the post having voted to give him membership as an appreciative gesture. Ed served with the U. S. Marine Corps in the Pacific during World War II. Two other applications were voted on.

The ladies were honored by a visitation from Mrs. Cecile Hafer, who heads the VFW Auxiliary in this state, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Hays, the Department of Oregon secretary. Both ladies are from Portland and there was a turnout of about 60 local members to greet them. There were also visitors from San Diego.

After the meetings of the veterans and their ladies, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Total membership of Post 966 and Ladies Auxiliary, for 1953, was 182 and prospects for an increase in 1954 seem good. Attendance at meetings usually runs 50 or better.

Plans were set on foot by both outfits for the annual get-together of all veterans and their immediate kin, the night of November 7.

Mr. and Mrs. John Musser and her mother left Wednesday for a visit with their son, Calvin, and his family, near Cody, Wyoming, where John thinks there may be an elk with his name on it.

Archie Hendricks, Gus Johnson and Bud Rausch have gone to the Metolius River country where Archie is having a cabin built.
