Concert Artists Please Crowd

Brookings was well represented Tuesday night at the second of this season's Community Concerts at Crescent Elk School auditorium in Crescent City. The hall was packed with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience.

Those who have believed the harmonica to be a dime store instrument strictly for the amusement of small boys were in for a great surprise when John Sebastian showed it to be a true concert instrument of range and charm. It is no wonder that he has met with such success over the country, where he has appeared with the country's leading symphonies as well as being a regular featured star on T. V. and radio.

To add to the spice of the evening's program, Miss Dorothy Jarnac, dance-humorist and pride of New York, brought wizard mimicry in a fascinating gallery of dance characterizations. Her "Discourse on an Abstract Painting", with narration by Mr. Sebastian, had the audience in stitches. They were completely captivated by her superb comic
