Basketball Team Opens Practice

Practice for the coming basketball season began for the boys of B.H.S. November 2. Thirty boys, ten freshmen, eight sophomores, four juniors and eight seniors, turned out and were put through their paces by coach Art Guthrie. Seven of the group are returning lettermen.

The first game will be played with Illinois Valley, Friday, Dec. 11, there. The following evening the Valley team will play here.

Dramatics Club Goes to Arcata

The Dramatics Club of Brookings High School will be leaving for the Dramatics Festival at Humboldt State College in Arcata, Friday the 20th of November.

Thirty-eight members of the Dramatics Club will enjoy two days of plays and skits in Arcata the 20th and 21st. The group will leave the school at noon on Friday and will return late the following evening. Mrs. Doherty, Dramatics Club adviser, will be in charge. The cost will be three dollars plus extra expenses. Lodging will be provided by the college.

Friday night there will be a large banquet followed by the play "Twelfth Night," put on by the college. The next day will be taken up in the main building by plays presented by several high schools. This year Brookings High, the only Oregon school invited, has been asked to present a play. The club decided to give one of the plays presented here last year, "Two Crooks and a Lady." The cast is as follows:

Bev Glass as Mrs. Simms Vane, The Lady.

Sherrill McClain as Miss Jones, Companion.

Karen Simpson as Lucille, the maid and crook.

Bob Swan as Miller the Hawk, the crook.

Pete Tierce as the inspector-policeman.

Jim Barkley as Garrity, a policeman.

Peggy Gran is assistant director.

Senior Class Gives Dance

The senior class sponsored a masquerade dance at the school Friday, October 30. In addition to dancing, the guests were able to have their fortunes told. Prizes were given for the best costumes.

Peggy Gran received first prize of $5.00 for her orange and black costume. Second prize honors of $2.50 apiece were shared by Nancy Cummings and Joy Gott. Nancy represented a pumpkin and Joy was dressed as a victim of a car wreck. She was costumed in bandages and crutches. Third prizes of $1.50 each went to Roy Dirks and Jeff Kerr; Roy as a Hawaiian girl and Jeff as an Indian Chief.

There was a potato dance which Sandy Whillock and Roy Dirks won. Roy received a car—a small one as his prize, and Sandy received a nice box of stationery.

Many students had their fortunes told by Miss Fitzgibbon. From all reports she did an excellent and interesting job.

All who attended had a good time. Many thanks and much credit should be given to the seniors who worked so hard to make it a success.

Playday Sponsored For County Schools

The Brookings High School had a Playday for the high schools of Curry County, Saturday, Nov. 14. It was held in the Brookings High gym.

This Playday was sponsored by the G.A.A. (Girls Athletic Association) and the Letterettes. The high schools participating were Gold Beach, Langlois, and Ophir. Port Orford was also invited but was not able to attend.

The teams consisted of players intermixed from the participating high schools.

First of all, there was a short program followed by the regular volleyball games. Lunch was served by the Brookings girls.

In the afternoon, they had a playoff for first and second prizes. Team four won first and team one won second. Then, the Brookings girls gave a demonstration of Speed-A-Way, which is a new game recently invented by Marge Larson.

4-H Achievement Night Held

The annual 4-H Achievement Night was held at the high school gym November 7.

The program opened with an introduction by Leo Lucas. Three numbers were presented by Leo Lucas. These numbers were presented by the high school chorus led by Robert Dick. The first was a negro spiritual "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen." The second, a beautifully harmonized number, "The Bells of Saint Mary's," and third a modern lyric, "When Love Is Kind."

Another trio of songs was presented by the Barbershoppers. They were "Ol Aunt Dinah," "After Dark," and "Keep America Singing." They also were led by Mr. Dick.

Ken Priest, the 4-H county agent for Curry County was on hand to introduce the president of the First National Bank of Portland who presented the 4-H members with pins, awards and certificates. Nancy Chapin won a special county award.

Refreshments were served afterward.

This achievement night was sponsored by the Brookings Rotary Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young left Sunday for San Francisco, taking Mrs. Young's mother home. They planned to return today.
