Melvin Sawyer posted $30 bail after being apprehended by members of the Lucky 7 Club who held him and called Police Chief Bud Cross.

Sawyer was seen by a passer-by in the lot after having broken a window in the adjoining service station, and the glass in the door of the showroom. The passer-by told members of the club, who kept him immobilized until the police arrived.

Nayborhill News

Nayborhill members, save your can tops and bottoms for making those Christmas bells at our next meeting. More about our club meeting at a later date.

Guess the grass will grow again on the Stewart road. Those garden Club year books are finished! Mrs. Ruth Bathiany, program chairman, has really kept Pioneer road hot between her place and Stewart's. Leora and Ruth have been burning the midnight oil and Bill Stewart was right there to help, too. Even served the ladies refreshments after their night's work was done.

Mrs. Jess Porteuw visited with their daughter Yvonne in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster of Harbor were visitors on Nayborhill last Saturday.

Mrs. Don McCarton and son Jack were in Medford this week. While visiting the daughter there, the son-in-law arrived here for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliver from Ventura, Calif., visited with the William Eickhoffs for several days. The Olivers have been traveling since last February and they say that Brookings' climate is super.

Saturday evening at the Bill Stewart home was spent playing Canasta—ladies against the men. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravekes and Mr. and Mrs. William Eickhoff. Boys, you better practice a little!

Mrs. Andrew Honsel was an afternoon visitor to the Don McCarton's and Ed Ravekes last Saturday.

You've all heard about Mrs. O'Leary's cow setting fire to Chicago? Well it sure looked like there was a fire up our way last Friday morning. Folks running from all directions looking for Weaver's cow! Yep, they found her, she was just trying to see how green the grass was on the other side of the fence!

CHRISTMAS SEAL CAMPAIGN OPEN

The 47th Christmas Seal Sale campaign under the auspices of the Curry County Tuberculosis and Health Association opened Monday, Nov. 16, and will continue through December.

Christmas Seals were mailed to 2400 families in Curry County under the leadership of Mrs. Irene H. Koeller, Brookings, Curry County Seal Sale chairman. She is being assisted by the following volunteer workers throughout the county:

Mrs. Marion Brooks, Langlois; Mrs. Ralph Mason, Denmark; Mrs. Charles W. Brooks, Sixes; Mrs. Walter Cram, Port Orford; Mrs. J. A. Carmichael, Ophir; Mrs. A. S. Currie, Gold Beach; Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Gold Beach; Mrs. Ralph Kessler, Gold Beach; Mrs. H. Timeus, Pistol River; Mrs. Lester Twohy, Brookings; Mrs. Milton Foster, Harbor.

The 1953 Seal features the face of the singing child, wearing red mittens and green stocking cap and muffler, and holding an open book of carols. As warmly personal as the children singing carols at your door, the 1953 Christmas Seal will bring Christmas into every home in the community, recalling the 1500-year-old tradition of singing associated with the Christmas season.
