

MOVE TO PORTLAND

Word from Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincent, former Brookings residents, states that they have moved from Oswego to 2218 N.E. Wasco street, Portland to be near Mr. Vincent's work.

Mrs. Vincent is still working as medical secretary at Emanuel hospital. Jimmy, a senior at the University of Portland, attended a seminar of the National Press Photographers Association held in Seattle the second week of the month. He plans to follow photography as a profession upon graduation.

Nancy and her family are still at the University of Denver, wrote Mrs. Vincent.

Neighbor Wins Orchid

Mrs. Ed Cardwell was proudly wearing a lovely orchid the other night. It was won for her by the letter sent to the "Orchids To You" radio program on KIEM by Mrs. Fred Blunt.

Mrs. Blunt's winning letter told why Mrs. Cardwell, a good neighbor, deserves an orchid.

Firemen to Meet

Members of the Brookings Volunteer Fire Department will hold a meeting Friday, Nov. 27, at the city hall. The time is 8 p.m.

All members are urged to attend.

Another Beauty

Ethel Molino, who made the beautiful moss and mushroom planter for Amber Campbell's House of Shoes has made another arrangement in the spirit of Thanksgiving which you can see in the window of the shoe shop.

This one is in shades of green, brown, and bronze and contains different varieties of cones, all in a peeled redwood bark container.

Mercy Plane Later

The Mercy planes scheduled to visit Brookings will not be here for at least a month, according to Mrs. Dora Marcy, chairman here of the non-profit group which operates the planes.

Delay is due to slight damage sustained to one of the planes during a landing.

Nayborhill Club to Make Ornaments

Nayborhill Club members will learn how to make some interesting decorations for Christmas at their regular meeting Wednesday, Dec. 2. Bells from can lids and foil trees are two of the items to be made.

Members are reminded to bring can lids, a frog, foil, scotch tape, and a knitting needle.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Zip-Zippers, 4-H first year sewing group, met Monday evening, the 23rd. The meeting was held at Kathleen Olsen's house.

Officers were elected. They are as follows:

Kathleen Olsen, president; Verna Arnett, vice president; Kathleen Rooney, secretary; Ann Matot, reporter; Mary Ann Olsen, song leader.

The leader is Mrs. Lillian Zumpfe.
