Azalea Singers To Sing at Club

Highlighting the program for the Azalea Garden Club's December meeting today will be the second appearance this year of their own singing group, The Azalea Singers, under the direction of Mrs. Nell Mackenzie.

This group was organized six years ago under the direction of the late Margaret Tisdale, and when they organized after her passing, Mrs. Mackenzie, because of her outstanding voice and musical ability, was asked by the group to assume leadership.

Mrs. Mackenzie sings as a member of the chorus, as well as directing it.

Several years ago the singers found themselves so much in demand that they could not fulfill all the requests to appear, so now they limit their singing to four programs a year at the Garden Club meetings, and an occasional guest appearance, one of which is at the Smith River Garden Club.

The program to be presented today will be Christmas music, and a featured number, will be a solo by Mrs. Wilhelmina Donnelly, with violin obligato by La Merne Christianson.

Mrs. Mackenzie will sing a solo, and a duet with Mrs. Helen Rice. Numbers to be included in the program are:

A Musical Christmas Card... Cunkle
A Very Merry Christmas Rbinson
At Christmas Time... Wright
& Forrest
Carol of the Russian Children
Treharne

Chorus
Winter Wonderland... Bernard
Grandma's Dream... Crist

Goykes Top Mixed Doubles Bowlers

Mixed doubles at Azalea Lane last Sunday saw Bob and Clara Goyke walk away from a field of twelve couples with honors for the evening.

The Goykes rolled a sharp 1203 to top the evenings scorers. Second were Homer and Ricky Haggerty, with 1182.

High man for the evening was Homer Haggerty, who bowled 617, but even he was topped by Coara Goyke, who scored a terrific 628.

So popular are the mixed doubles events becoming, that Glen Rogers is planning to make them a permanent feature. A steadily growing group of married couples are participating in the event.

KIEM-TV Wants Program Help

What do you like in Television? KIEM-TV would like to know. As the Eureka station grows in popularity, it would like assistance in determining what kind of shows people here want.

For instance, KIEM has the opportunity to show the Buick-Milton Berle show locally, and Menning Buick, local Buick dealer is willing to help sponsor it. The question is, do the local viewers want it?

The station asks that TV viewers write in to them at Eureka, telling them of their preference on this and other programs.

BOWLERS WIN AWARDS

Bowler's Win Awards

The VFW bowlers were really hot last week. Four girls on the VFW Auxiliary team won awards. Clara Goyke won the Brookings Laundry award for the highest score (232), Amber Campbell won Moore's Hidden score award, Cleo Craig picked off Cordenman's award for most consistent score, and Marjorie Goldsberry the Shanghai award for the game nearest her average.

On the men's team, Les Ray, captain of the VFW team won a steak dinner at Chad's by bowling six strikes in a row, finishing with a total score of 221.

Annual Party Sunday

The VFW Auxiliary annual Christmas party is planned for Sunday afternoon, December 13, at 4 P.M. The party will be held at O'Holleran's this year.

PRESENTS FOR CAMP WHITE

Dolly Brainard and Amber Campbell spent Monday afternoon wrapping presents which the VFW Auxiliary is sending to the Camp White Domiciliary for this Christmas.
