

Dancers Entertain Community Club

Mrs. Blossom Behee and several members of her dancing class entertained the Harbor Community Club and their guests last Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Claus, Frosty, the Snow Man, a Doll and three angels were all there to dance and each received the hearty applause of the crowd.

Mrs. Nellie Jagers and her committee had several of the lap-ropes on display which have been made to send to Camp White.

Mrs. Viola Hanscam and Mrs. Ruby Harvey had the hall beautifully decorated with holly and fir wreaths and a lovely Christmas tree filled one corner. Mrs. Hannah Travis introduced a novel idea for the gift exchange, with members and guests seated in a circle, each holding their gifts. Mrs. Pauline Pallady read a Christmas story and each time the word "Christmas" was read the gifts were passed to the person to the right, when the story was finished each person kept the gift she was holding at that time.

Mrs. Lea Morgan was chairman of the hostesses, Mrs. Mae Simpson, Mrs. Lois Peterson and Mrs. Erma Rice assisting her. There was a Christmas corsage for everyone present and all enjoyed coffee, cookies and sandwiches at the large white covered tables with their decorations of candles and fir boughs.

LAZY SUSANS—YELTONS

Lions Club to Have Christmas Party

The members of the Brookings Harbor Lions Club, and their ladies will have one grand get together at their first Christmas party, to be held in the Chetco Inn, Saturday, December 12, at 7:30 P.M.

An evening of fun and entertainment is in store along with dining and an exchange of presents. All Lion members are urged to come and bring their ladies and have a good time. Oh yes, there'll be dancing, too.

MRS. CRANTFORD HERE

Mrs. Etta Crantford of Portland is currently visiting her daughter Mrs. Virgil Goldsburly and family.

Mrs. Crantford intends to stay a couple of months.

Girls Letterettes will hold a meeting Wednesday, December 9, to discuss the new point system and plan for future activities.

Nayborhill News

Nayborhill club met with Edith Drorbaugh December fifth, with President Elsa Raviches presiding.

Thirteen members were present, with Agnes Portecew becoming a new member.

The afternoon was spent in making Christmas bells from tin can lids and Christmas trees from aluminum foil.

Plans were made to help some unfortunate family at Christmas time.

Next meeting will be at Alvina Eichoff's home on January 6.

Carl and Billy Mason are back from Seattle.

George Gates and Mr. Olsen spent Saturday evening with the Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hanks.

Blossom Behee and her ballet class are very busy getting ready for their Christmas Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Reiser spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh.

The women did it again! Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schmidt were down for Canasta at the Lee Drorbaugh's.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith from Canyonville, Oregon, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh.

Examinations for drivers licenses will be given in Brookings Thursday afternoon at the City Hall.

Dana Addresses Wildlife Group

Marshall N. Dana, part-time resident and ex-editor of the Oregon Journal's Editorial Page, addressed the third annual Wildlife Banquet at Humboldt State College, Friday.

Mr. Dana's address was entitled "Is there any future for furs, feathers, fins and fun?"

Mr. Dana is a well-known figure among conservationists, especially known for his "five-year plan for game administration in Oregon".

The Danas were accompanied to Eureka by Mr. and Mrs. William Crissey.

SCOUT DINNER SUNDAY

Recognition Dinner for the Oregon Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at Erb Memorial Building, Sunday, December 13.

Attending from Brookings will be Commissioner Henry Kerr, and possibly others.

Santa Claus Makes Dates For Brookings

Santa Claus is on his way to Brookings, and he's scheduled to arrive pretty soon now.

According to latest communications, the ruddy old gent is due into Tots to Teens in Brookings on Tuesday, December 22 about 11 A.M. Progress has been slow because of the load of candy canes he's carrying, but he'll make it on time.

Santa will reappear the night before Christmas at the tree to be erected by the firemen in front of the Central Building. While there, he'll give candy to the kids about seven P.M.

FAIRY TALE HOUSE SHINES IN WINDOW

Be sure to see the gingerbread house in the window at Phillips' Dad 'n' Lad Store. It's perfectly detailed, right down to a gumdrop, vine growing up the icing chimney and it is right out of a fairy tale. Margaret Phillips (Mrs. Al) made it, and Phillips are giving all their December customers a chance on it.

MONTE SPRAINS ANKLE

C. O. Leonard is hobbling around on crutches because of a sprained ankle. He says he was only trying to be polite. While sidestepping a lady pedestrian, he stepped in a hole, and twisted the ankle severely.

Mrs. Wm. Brown has been ill for several days.
