Grange Leaders Of State Attend County Meet

A group of State Grange officers headed by the State Grange Master, Elmer McClure, held a conference for the Curry County Granges at Sixes last Thursday. The meeting started at 7:45 after a pot luck dinner at 6:30. Considering the weather, a good sized crowd attended the meeting. The duties of all the officers were explained by the different State officers, and demonstrations were given of some of the floor work. An interesting and informative question and answer period was held.

These State Officers conferences are held in each county of the state once in two years, and bring the members throughout the state in closer contact with their state officers. Those in the visiting group besides State Master McClure were State Secretary Mildred Norman, State Lecturer, Beulah Moore; State Home Economic Committee Chairman, Eva Stone; State Juvenile Chairman, Helen Mast; District Home Economics Chairman, Edith Poe; State Youth Chairman and also a State Deputy, Henry Hendrickson; State Deputy Cyril Schooling and Olin Poe.

Rod and Gun Club

At the recent annual election of Rod and Gun Club officers, J. G. Koehler was named president, Bill Bennett, vice-president, Roy Praeger, secretary-treasurer, Mickey Gould, sergeant-at-arms, and Lloyd Harbin and Bud Stoltenberg replacements on the directorate.
