Christmas Theme At Meeting of SR Women's Club

The Christmas theme was carried out in the decorations at the club room in the Community Hall for the meeting of the Women's Club on December 4, when members assembled for the Yuletide meeting.

The fireplace mantel, arranged by Mrs. Jack Van Zee, drew the attention of all with two huge angels made of art paper and decorated with stars and motifs. Three large hand-made candles centered the mantel, with a background of green metallic paper. Vice President Mrs. Vance Bolick presided at the business session in the absence of President Mrs. Art Lawn.

The meeting opened with the Cub Scout charter presented to the Women's Club who sponsor this troop. Gary Rudisill was escorted by the color guard to the presiding office and the charter was accepted by Mrs. Vance Bolick. The Cubs assisting in the ceremony were John Westbrook, Conrad Saxelby, Lester Leiber, Billy Newton and Gary Rudisill. Mrs. Leslie Saxelby, den mother for Den 3, accompanied the boys from school to make the presentation.

Mrs. John Ostrom gave an art talk for the art corner and had on display art work done by the teachers of the Smith River Union school of which she is art director.

Mrs. William Fisher, program chairman for the Christmas party, announced the guest soloist, Mrs. LeMerne Christianson, who sang "O Holy Night" and "Little Town of Bethlehem," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Lucille Patterson. Guest speaker was Mrs. Myrtle Hibbard of Harbor, who gave an interesting talk on the Birth of Christ and told of the Holy Land and Bethlehem where Christ was born and brought out the beautiful story of the ages. She told of the customs of the people in the Holy Land that are the same as when Christ was born.

She told of the bells in the Church of Nativity that ring out, "Peace on earth Good will to men."

Refreshments were individual mince pies centered with a red candle and served by the committee. The table was centered with a barren tree branch glowing with silver stars and a white madonna bust bowed in prayer, surrounded by white angel hair with

Woman Hurt In Car Accident

Moderate injuries were suffered by a local woman in an automobile accident in Harbor Friday night.

Injured was Genevieve DeGraff, who suffered a broken nose, a fractured foot, and face lacerations in the accident. She is being cared for at Brookings Clinic. Jim Martindale, driver of the car, escaped with a lacerated ear and facial cuts and bruises.

According to reports, Martindale, who was traveling north, lost control of the car after swerving onto the shoulder of the road. The car crossed the road, went into a ditch, and rolled onto its side.
