By ETHEL GOODLIN

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall were co-hostesses for a potluck supper on Friday evening in the social room of the church. The affair was in honor of the teachers of the Sunday school and their husbands. Following the supper, the evening was spent playing lively games which were enjoyed by all. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Zee, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Goodlin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Rube Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morrison and Rev. and Mrs. James Shelton. Several teachers were unable to be present. Singing of Christmas songs and prayer by Rev. Shelton closed the fellowship meeting.

Del Norte Pomona Grange No. 42 will be guests of Lake Earl Grange on Sunday, Dec. 20. A potluck luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock with ham furnished by the Grange. The business meeting will follow, also Christmas party and exchange of gifts. All Pomona members are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sierka have closed the Ship on Shore Cafe for the winter and with their two children left for Santa Cruz to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Eva Hill, 87, has returned home after spending several weeks at the Harrington Rest Home in Crescent City and is glad to be back in her own home.

Mrs. Hill has four sons, Davie, Donald and Zahn Crockett of Oregon and Harvey Lockwood of Cummings, Calif.

Mrs. Dolly Jean Adams and children of Gold Beach visited her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Hill, one recent afternoon, returning home the same day.

Rev. and Mrs. James Shelton and daughters are enjoying a visit with their son and brother Duane Shelton who arrived Sunday from Fort Ord, where he is in training in U. S. Army.
