Nayborhill News

Santa came early to the Mc-Carton home. Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton are sporting a beautiful new car and Jack McCarton is also driving a new car.

A big thank you, to the City for the gravel spread on Pioneer road.
It all helps. Now folks, why don't we slow down a little so some of the gravel stays on the road and doesn't all bounce off to the gutters.

Carl and Billie Mason are in their own home again. They have been painting and working like beavers.

Mrs. Beula Kinser and her mother, Mrs. Watterman from the Winchuck, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jaggers from North Chetco were Sunday evening visitors of the William Eickhoffs home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravekes were Sunday evening visitors of the Lee Drorboughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeser have a new television set, and we understand that Ray has the chairs all lined up in front of it and charges admission. P.S.—Bring your own pop-corn.

We of Nayborhill are very proud that Blossom Behee is one of us. She has done a lot for this community with her outstanding ballet classes, and would be a credit to any community. Her recital of Winter Wonderland last Friday night at the VFW Hall was just super.

We can see several Christmas trees peeping from windows up our way. Sure makes you get into the Christmas mood.

Would the ladies of Nayborhill Club please bring their food donations for the Christmas box to the home of Elsa Ravekes? Thank you.

Little Gragg Behee has lost a couple days at school this week on account of a dose of poison oak (and it isn't even spring!)
