OSTENBERGS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Ostenberg are here visiting their son and daughter and their families for Christmas.

They plan to leave Monday and spend a week in Petaluma before returning to their home in Chico.

Sunday afternoon the ladies of the VFW Auxiliary had their annual "stag" Christmas party at O'Holleran's grill. Thirty showed up. Gifts were exchanged and a good time was had by all. The ladies have met at these parties now for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stienke have bought the Steve Sullivan place, west of town, where Mrs. Stienke and the children are living. Steve and his father are still on Steve's place on Crystal creek, in the north end of the county.

Fell Campbell had word Monday night, that his mother had passed away at Heber Springs, Ark., and left the next day to attend the funeral. His father is said to be very ill and Fell had been expecting word that he had passed on, little suspecting his mother's condition.

ZIP-ZIPPERS MEET

The Zip-Zippers, 4-H first year sewing group, held their fourth meeting at the home of Kathleen Olsen. After the business meeting more work was done on the gift for mother.

Refreshments were served by the secretary, Kathleen Rooney. Reporter, A.M.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Kirtley, residents of the Winchuck area, and their small son, left last Friday for a winter, at least, in St. Petersburg, Fla. They intend to join there Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Benson. The two ladies are sisters.

BALL PLAYER

One of the first string players on the O. S. C. basketball team, has many friends, locally. Bob, son of Mrs. Palm Stout, spent several summers here at the Stout home, corner of Pine and Oak Streets.

VISITORS LIKE HARBOR

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wareham and son Eud from Portland spent several days here last week at the home of their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joy in Harbor.

The Warehams were on their way to southern California and were very much impressed by our beautiful scenery.

That which is given with pride and ostentation is rather an ambition than a bounty. —Seneca
