

Harbor News

The news in Harbor this week is of the comings and goings of this area during the Christmas holiday. With some of the larger mills shut down for several days, a good opportunity was available for visits with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struebing and their daughter Marylin went to Los Angeles to spend the holidays. Marylin, who is a senior at Oregon State college, planned to be married in Los Angeles last Monday. A full account of the wedding will be given upon the return of the Struebings after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reiling and three children drove over from Grants Pass on the 24th to spend Christmas eve here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne. They left Christmas morning to enjoy another Christmas tree and dinner at the home of Gene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiling in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chambers left last week for Portland where they will spend the holidays with their son, Dean, and his family.

William H. Smith is spending Christmas at his home north of Brookings, coming from Camp White where he has been the last several months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hall, proprietors of the Hall Cabins above Harbor, are in Richmond enjoying the holidays with their son, E. L. Hall and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Englund drove to Seattle to spend the holidays with their son and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Schaeffer are enjoying a visit with relatives and friends in Salem over the holidays.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany returned home Sunday after being in Tulalake, Calif., for Christmas with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford and two children. The Crawfords returned with Mrs. Bathiany and will remain for some steelhead fishing.

Roy Newman and his mother, Mrs. Blanche Maney returned home Tuesday from Los Angeles where they spent the Christmas holiday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hanscam and children enjoyed a visit over Christmas from Mrs. Hanscam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Welch of Grants Pass, who returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Peterson have been enjoying a visit from their son, Richard, of Portland, who has been here about ten days. The steelhead fishing has been taking part of Richard's time, as has surf fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Anderson and son Jerry returned home on Tuesday after spending Christmas with relatives in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt of Parkers Anchorage, returned home Tuesday after a week's visit in Napa, their former home, where the parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt live.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mitchell left the latter part of last week for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will visit with Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mustard, over New Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Edwardson spent the Christmas weekend in Roseburg where they visited their son, Walter, and his family. Two year old Ronny was the center of his grandparents' attention, of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson and two children drove to Paradise, Calif., where they spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grigsby. They report the weather wonderful, and they were surprised at the small amount of traffic on the highways.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Edson returned Monday from Portland where they had spent a week visiting relatives. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. J. Paulson of Vancouver, Wash., who will remain for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Edson recently bought a corner, the Andrew Potocnick property, across the highway from Benham road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keener and Jack Keener returned Sunday after enjoying Christmas in Portland with relatives.

Ralph Ebert spent Christmas with his wife in Grants Pass, returning home on Tuesday. Mrs. Ebert will come over from Grants Pass, where she is employed, on Thursday to spend the New Years holiday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe and daughter Lois spent several days over Christmas with relatives in Merrill, where the group was joined by Joe's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myers of Gregory, South Dakota. Their other daughter, Mrs. Elaine Clark, went to Powers to spend Christmas with her husband's family, her husband Harold being in Korea for his Christmas.

The memory of the Bethlehem babe bears to mortals gifts greater than those of Magian kings,— hopes that cannot deceive, that waken prophecy, gleams of glory, coronals of meekness, diadems of love.
