

Nayborhill News

By ELSA RAVEKES

The Nayborhill club met at the home of Alvina Eickhoff last Wednesday. New officers were elected and secret pals names drawn for the new year. Mrs. Lona McCarton was elected president and Leora Stewart was elected secretary. Billie Mason was welcomed back into the club. The hostess served a delicious dessert lunch. Next meeting will be held at the home of Harriett Hamness.

Lee Drorbaugh is home from the Seaside hospital and is improving every day.

Mrs. Muriel Gragg drove to Grants Pass over New Years to bring her daughter Patty-Jo home. Patty had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dale Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson had for their guests New Years Eve, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Hines and La Rue Ziegler.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Malone were visitors on Nayborhill this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Behee and son Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Wm Stewart spent an enjoyable New Years Eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Porteuw spent their New Years holiday in Silverton, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh Saturday evening.

Chet Gragg was ill with the flu for several days but is back at work again.

Ed Ravekes spent most of his 10-day vacation nursing a bad case of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ritchie and family were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamness last week. Also visiting the Hamness last week were Mrs. Irene Smith and son Cecil from North Chetco.

Several of the ladies from the Assembly of God Church gave Mrs. Helen Weaver a surprise shower last Thursday. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. The ladies present were D. Clayton, Mrs. Zelta Baughn, Mrs. Watala, Mrs. Kerth, Mrs. D. Loring, Mrs. L. Hopper and Mrs. G. Spencer. Those sending gifts who were unable to attend were Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Vavene and Mrs. F. Moore.

Lady Luck was with the Carl Masons Saturday morning. While Carl was sipping a cup of coffee in the kitchen a fire broke out through the wall around the trash burner. Quick action by Carl probably saved their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Arnett and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeser.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hanks had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. (Bill) Brown and family.

SMITH RIVER

By Ethel Goodlin

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawn near the California Oregon line north was the scene of a lively boys party on Saturday, when a group of boys gathered at the Lawn home, to extend birthday greetings to Danny Lawn, who celebrated his seventh birthday. Following a luncheon at noon time the group was taken to Pine Cone Theater at Brookings to see a motion picture. Among the guests were Tommy and Wayne Blankenship, Gale and Dwayne Reicklin, Tommy Buttick, Jimmy Reuss, Eddie Eagles, Dale Morrison, Pepper Owen, Sandy Usher, Rodney Browne, Danny's niece Johna Eagles and his cousin Storm Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hight left Saturday for a vacation trip to Oakland and Vallejo, visiting friends and relatives in that area.

Mrs. Eva Hill is confined to the Seaside hospital under observation and medical treatment by her physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Bolick have arrived home from a vacation trip to Bakersfield where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hazel Cearley and two children have returned to their Smith River home from Washington.

Gustofson of Harbor Saturday evening.

We know now why Mrs. Pete Schmidt didn't have a big washing to do this week. Seems like Pete took a notion to wash the suit he had on in the well (at the ply mill).

PTA Meets Plays Games

Ken Priest, county agent, and Sylvia Lee, home extension agent from Gold Beach presented a very interesting and entertaining program at the PTA meeting Thursday evening. Topic of the evening was recreation in the home, and after a short talk, the group played several games.

During the business meeting the organization authorized payment of $25.89 to County Health Nurse Dorothea Miller as Brookings' share of the cost of supplying extra syringes and needles necessary for the county immunization program.

Also discussed was the pie social and square dance to be sponsored by the group as a money raising project sometime in February.

Brookings Soldier Goes to School

Private Glenn Orton of Brookings is going to school while in the army, according to word received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Orton.

Glenn is taking training in the Motor Pool at his army base, Ft. Ord, California.

Private Orton has been a member of the armed forces since the fifteenth of September. He began his school recently.

Missionary to Speak

Deaconess Riebe will speak in place of the regular sermon at the 8 a.m. service of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church, Sunday, Jan. 17.

Deaconess Riebe will speak on Christianity in Red China, and is well qualified to speak on the subject, as she was the last Anglican missionary to leave China when the Communists took over the country.
