

Nayborhill News

By ELSA RAVEKES

Nayborhill is just buzzing with activity these days. The Mortons are moving to their new home on Park Drive and the Hanks are moving into their new home on the hill.

The Mortons have been renting the Hanks' new home until their own was completed.

Just ask Mary Hanks about that big box she has carted around the country all of these years. She opened it the other day and found it was filled with old grocery tags!

Margaret Breuer, Ethel Jackson and Muriel Gragg went shopping in Crescent City Wednesday. They stopped to visit with Mary Fisher in Smith River on their way home and was served some de-li-cious refreshments.

Mrs. Dora Brooks spent Friday afternoon visiting with Mrs. Ray Reeser.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Portenev made a hurry-up trip over to Medford Saturday morning. They just beat the slide on the way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lilligard and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Foster were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hamness Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Lilligard were on their way to Tucson, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mason were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh Sunday.

Patty-Jo Gragg celebrated her ninth birthday Sunday at her home. She had as her guests Kathy Hannan, Lee Bruer, and several games and having refreshments Patty treated her friends to the theater.

Mrs. Bonnie Gates of Harbor was a visitor at the Percy Hanks home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mrs. C. Mason drove to Eugene Wednesday on business.

Doug Hamness sure is good material for some 4-H leader. He has been making some of the cutest little figures for lawns and some very clever nameplates for the

ADVENTISTS HEAR MISSIONARIES

Elder and Mrs. L. D. Minner, who have spent about thirty years in mission work in South America, and Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Duffie and children, on furlough from that field, were guests at the Seventh-day Adventist church last Saturday.

Dr. Duffie heads a clinic at Juliaca, in the high Andes, where the altitude is 12,000 feet. He spoke concerning the work of the clinic and the results of medical missionary work.

In that area there are 120 primary schools which are taught by natives who have been trained for that work in higher grade local schools.

Dr. Duffie's three little girls, dressed in native costume, sang "Jesus Loves Me" in the native language.

TWINS BORN SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tobin are parents of twin girls born January 16, 1954 at Seaview Hospital in Crescent City.

The little girls each weighed only a little over three pounds, and are in incubators at Seaview hospital.

Mr. Tobin is principal of Brookings elementary school.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Simmons returned to their Cape Ferrelo home Friday following several weeks spent in Sacramento and San Jose.

house. He cuts them out of wood with a coping saw then paints them.

La Rue Ziegler cared for the Buzz Stewart children last Thursday while the folks shopped in Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Gragg and daughter, Patty-Jo, spent Wednesday evening visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brooks.

Believe it or not, Ray Reeser was overheard inviting Earl Malone over to his home for a hand-out—of elk meat. Don't sound like Ray—but you just never can tell.

Mrs. Bernice Swanson and daughter Sally were visitors on Nayborhill Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson and George Gates arrived home Saturday from Willow Creek, Calif. They had been there for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drorbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ravekes were on the serving committee at the Chetco Orange Friday night.
