Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bowlin and family returned home Sunday after enjoying a five days visit in Portland with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bowlin, and their daughter, Miss Shirley Bowlin. Both Gene and Shirley are attending the University of Oregon Dental college. They were accompanied to Portland by another son, Pvt. Robert Bowlin, who has been taking his basic training at Fort Ord, and left for Baltimore where he is attending intelligence training classes. Also while in Portland, they became acquainted with the newest grandchild, seven-pound six-ounce Robert Alan, who was born on February 1 to Gene and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fanger and three children left last week for Medford after visiting for four days at the home of Mr. Fanger's brother, Franklin, and family at their home up the south bank road. They have just returned to the United States from Japan where they have been for the past four years at the New Tribes Mission at Mizusawa as missionaries. After visiting relatives for a short time, Mr. Fanger will travel around the country on a speaking-tour for the next six to nine months, after which they expect to return to Japan. While here they spoke at the Brookings Bible church and the Brookings Community church services.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hayes left recently for a months vacation trip which is taking them first to the Bay Area, where they will spend a few days and be joined by Dr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers of Oakland. The group will then go to Florida by way of Dallas, Texas, and then on to Cuba for several days. Their daughter, Sharon, is staying with the E. R. Olson family during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cool are the proud parents of an eight-pound seven-ounce son, born at the Brookings clinic Saturday morning. They have named the young man Michael Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne spent the weekend in Grants Pass visiting their daughter, Mrs. Gene Reiling and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Lane left the first of the week for Ridgefield, Washington, their former home, after being here for the past five months.

Verne Garvin of Smith River was up to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Sophia Jones, and uncle, Benjamin Jones, last week. He has just received his discharge from the army and arrived in the States from Okinawa where he served for the past year.

The ladies of the Grange wish to extend a cordial welcome to everyone to visit the quilt display at the Grange hall this Saturday from 1:30 to 9:30. Anyone wishing to enter a quilt, hobby or antique should have them at the hall between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. There is no admission charged, and a door prize will be given away at 9 o'clock.

OLDTIME PARTY PIE SOCIAL FRIDAY NIGHT

A big program and a lot of fun is promised everyone who attends the P.T.A. Old Time Party and Pie Social tomorrow night, Friday, February 19, at the high school gym.

No admission will be charged, but each lady is asked to bring a pie with her name on it.

Children are welcome, and pie by the piece and coffee will be the pickers. When the wind is blowing and the rain coming down, the blooms have to be picked just the same as in good weather, as the buds keep coming along as usual, or even faster in a warm rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Payne and family returned home last week from San Marcos, Texas. Mr. Payne, a lieutenant in the air force reserve, who is now released, had been stationed there at Gary Air Force base for several months and his family joined him shortly before Christmas.

Mrs. Alice Gero of San Jacinto arrived recently for a few weeks visit at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Webb.

for sale as well as whole pies to be auctioned off.

Money raised at the event will all go toward the fund for a scholarship of $120 to be given a senior this year.

The program will include dance numbers presented by students of Bonnie Kay Mincer and Blossom Behee. Music by the high school band, and the Barbershoppers, and skits and solos by a number of talented local people.

Also being planned are demonstration square dances by the high school students under the direction of Mrs. Grey, local dancers under the direction of Fred Fox, and a group from Gold Beach led by Ken Priest.

Later in the evening there will be movies for the children and folk dancing for the grownups.

P.T.A. members are asked to bring on extra pie to sell by the piece.
